WASHINGTON NEWS.

The Urgent Deficiency Bill Passes the House.

DAVIDSON TO KEEP HIS SEAT.

A Tariff Bill to Be Introduced by Chairman Mills—Important Suggestions.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

WASHINGTON, February 17.—The Blair Educational Bill was laid before the House to-day and referred to the Committee on Education.

Milliken moved that the Committee on Manufacturers be instructed to report back on Friday next his resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to investigate the Sugar Trust in New York. Agreed to.

The House then resumed consideration of the Urgency Deficiency bill, the pending question being upon instructing the public printer to enforce rigidly the provisions of the eight hour law. The amendment was adopted and the bill passed.

LOTTERY ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Sub-Committee of the House Postoffice Committee reported adversely upon the bill to prohibit circulating through the mails, newspapers containing lottery advertisements.

The bill to amend the law prohibiting alien persons and corporations from acquiring lands in the United States, received the approval of the House Committee on Mines and Mining. An amendment provides that the restrictions of the law shall not apply to mines of gold or silver, tin, lead, cinnabar or copper, or any interest therein.

The House Elections Committee disposed of the McDuffie Davidson Alabama contest in favor of Davidson, the sitting member, and will meet on Tuesday to decide upon further order of business. It is the general expectation that the Illinois contest, Worthington vs. Post, will be taken up. Party lines were drawn in the Alabama contest, and both majority and minority reports will be submitted.

A TARIFF BILL.

Chairman Mills promised a tariff bill within five days. It is understood that the bill puts wool on the free list, and reduces considerably the duties on woolen goods, especially the cheaper kinds.

Ad valorem duties are to be substituted in many cases for specific duties, on the ground that the latter weigh heavily upon the cheaper class of goods. Lumber, salt, coal and a number of other articles go on the free list. Iron ore and steel rails are not untouched. It is believed that the bill provides for a reduction of about 20 per cent on the sugar duties. The internal revenue tax on tobacco is to be reduced, and possibly repealed, and the tax removed from fruit and candies. The factors of the bill aim at a reduction in the revenue of between $70,000,000 and $80,000,000.

PILOTS' DUES.

The bill to exempt American coastwise sailing vessels piloted by their masters or by a United States pilot, from obligation to pay State pilots for services which are not actually rendered, was defeated by the House Committee of Merchant, Marine and Fisheries today. The committee has given considerable attention to the matter, and heard many persons interested. The division was so close that an aye and no vote is necessary to determine the committee's feeling.

POSTOFFICE RELIEF.

Vandever Urges the Claims of Southern California.

WASHINGTON, February 17.—Representative Vandever, at the request of Postmaster General Dickinson, has addressed a letter to him, calling his attention to the fact that the Urgency Deficiency Bill passed by the House to-day, contains an appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars, twenty-five thousand of which are for rent, fuel and lights of the postoffices. Vandever calls attention to the fact that this appropriation will enable the employment of additional clerks in the offices at Los Angeles, San Diego, San Bernardino, Riverside, Pasadena, San Luis Obispo and other places in the Sixth Congressional District. He asks that, in apportioning the allowances for clerk hire in this and other postoffice districts throughout the country, the Postmaster General will make allowances up to the full measure of the public necessity at the points named in California.

THE UNION PACIFIC.

How it Proposes to Pay its Debts to the Government.

WASHINGTON, February 17.—Warfield Storey, counsel for the Union Pacific Railroad Company, to-day submitted to the House Pacific Railroad committee modifications in the Outhwaite funding bill, desired by President Adams. The only change of moment suggested in the original, is the proposition to fix payments to be made by the company upon its debt, at one-tenth per cent. for the first five years, and of one-half one per cent. for the second term of five years, instead of uniform payment for the first ten years of one-third of one per cent. Roughly calculated, the effect of the proposed change would be to reduce the payments by $200,000 during each of the first five years, and increase them by a corresponding sum during the next five years.

Story stated the total amount of payment to the Government during the first ten years by the original bill. The company was desirous of having the charges lightened during the next five years, because, as Adams had stated, it had very heavy payments to make during that period and would be able to make up the deficiency within the next five years. The committee has invited the Pacific Railroad Commissioners to appear before it next Friday to furnish any information they may possess for the guidance of the committee. It was stated informally by one of the members of the committee to-day that Anderson had declined to appear before the committee in support of his bill directing the criminal prosecution of the Pacific Railroad officials.

CANADIAN COMMERCE.

Erastus Wyman Discusses the Present Situation.

WASHINGTON, February 17.—Erastus Wyman in response to a request has written to the editor of the Toronto Mail saying that he thinks the fisheries treaty the best settlement of an ugly quarrel. Canada in the long run will not be the loser, as the provisions of the new treaty will tend to increase intercourse between the two countries.

Continuing, he said that the next most vexed question to be adjusted is the conflict now impending between the great railway systems of the two countries. The success of the new "Soo" route intensified the fact that the Canadian roads are free from the exactions of interstate commerce, and this freedom means an enormous loss of profit to every other railroad in the United States which is carrying produce from west to east and merchandise from east to west. This condition of things seriously threatens the repeal of the bonding system, by which American produce is carried through Canada

WITHOUT PAYMENT OF DUTY

On entrance to the United States. This repeal would mean simply ruin to the Canadian roads, as without through custom they could not pay their charges.

It has been suggested that Cutterworth might, with propriety, omit the clause referring to the fisheries now likely to be settled by the treaty, and substitute another clause which would invite concurrent legislation on the part of Canada, creating provisions similar in that country to the operation of the Interstate act in this, so far as it affects through traffic, in which alone the United States is interested. This movement would secure the support of the vast railway interests threatened in the United States, and it would also secure an advocacy of that movement by English owners of Canadian railway securities, whose interests at this moment are seriously imperiled."

Department Gossip.

WASHINGTON, February 17.— The President and Mrs. Cleveland leave Washington next Tuesday, and expect to be back on Saturday. They will be accompanied by Secretary and Mrs. Whitney and Col. and Mrs Lamont.

The sub-committee of the Senate Committee of Post Office post roads, to which the postal telegraph matter has been referred, has been increased to five and now consists of Senators Sawyer, Reagan, Chase, Saulsbury and Mitchell, Jr. It has entered upon its work and is expected to present the bill to the Senate without much delay.

LINK'S LAW SUITS.

It is Held Untenable by Commissioner Morrell.

SALT LAKE, February 17.—The case of John F. Link against Mayor Armstrong, City Marshal Solomon, Recorder Wells and Sheriff Burt, for alleged assault and battery and forcibly entering land belonging to the plaintiff, the same being the famous Arsenal Hill land grab claims, was dismissed by United States Commissioner Morrell to-day, he deciding that the city was in possession of the land in question, and the officers used no undue authority in ejecting the plaintiff.

BURIED BOOTY.

It is Accidentally Discovered by a Child.

LONG VIEW, Tex., February 17 —A child playing in the yard of a barber named George Tibbet to-day discovered a one-dollar silver piece buried in a mound of earth. An excavation was made and 1000 silver dollars in addition were found. Tibbet is under arrest, charged with complicity in the murder of D. C. Hill, treasurer of Carthage county, who was found dead in his office with his head severed from his body a few days ago.

Heavy Losses to Stockmen.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., February 17. Conflicting dispatches have recently been sent out from Albuquerque in regard to the loss of stock by the past severe weather. Authentic reports from Navajo county, place the loss of sheep alone at 50,000, besides other stock. The reservation lies partly in Central New Mexico and Arizona, and the snows have been in point of severity unprecedented. The report states that the snow has all disappeared and stock is now improving.

Business Blocks Burned.

WESTERLY, R. I., February 17.—A destructive fire raged here early this morning, causing a loss of $150,000. The fire started in the Wells building. The Segar block, Stillman building, Bradford block and Niantic Bank building were destroyed. The thermometer marked 34 degrees below zero, causing severe suffering to the firemen.

"Petroleum Nasby" Buried.

TOLEDO, February 17.—The funeral of the late D. R. Locke, "Petroleum V. Nasby," took place this afternoon with Masonic ceremonies. The body was placed in a vault at Woodlawn cemetery. An enormous throng of citizens was in attendance, and also a large number of noted persons were present.

Won on a Foul.

NEW YORK, February 17.—A prize fight took place to-night on Long Island, between James Fell, of Canada, and Robert Ferguson, of Chicago, for $250 a side. The referee, Jere Dunn gave the fight to Fell in the third round on a foul.

A Life for a Life.

BUTTE, Mont., February 17.—Martin L. Scott was hanged at Deer Lodge to-day for the murder of his third wife at Granite on November 16th, last.

THE STRIKE SETTLED.

Work to be Resumed in the Reading Mines.

THE CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRY.

Startling Evidence Given Regarding the Operations of the Company.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

PHILADELPHIA, February 17.—Ex-president Smith, of the Reading Railroad Company, was the first witness to-day before the Congressional Committee dealing with the investigation of the strike. Smith said that he had been president of the Reading Railroad from 1861 to 1869, and director until 1876. He resigned the directorship because he discovered that the company was publishing false reports and cooking up its accounts in the interest of stock gambling. The floating debt was not reported, and while the road was not earning any money, it was paying dividends on its stock. Some of the directors were gambling in stock, and other influences in the management were compelled to pay these unearned dividends. The company had borrowed $15,000,000 to pay dividends which had not been earned. Smith said that the railroad company was managing the coal and iron company at the same time, and he explained how the railroad company obtained possession of the mining company.

Witness was asked his opinion as to the ability of the Reading Company to pay its debt and the value of its securities. He replied: "I would not own a dollar's worth of its bonds except the very early ones; the others are worthless; the Company cannot in my opinion pay its debts and will go back into the hands of the receiver within the year."

CORBIN CALLED AGAIN.

Corbin said that the interest charges and the other fixed charges amounted to $10,000,000 yearly. He denied that it would be advantageous to have a strike, in view of the Company's financial condition, so that it might offer that as an excuse for such condition.

The testimony of Thos. M. Richards, general sales agent of the Reading Coal and Iron Co., developed the fact that the price of coal at Philadelphia has risen $1 to $1.75 per ton since the beginning of the strikes.

Geo. W. Jones, formerly vice-president of the Reading Railroad Co., said that Robt. McCalmot loaned Mr. Gowen 80,000 shares of Reading Railroad stock in 1869 with which to purchase coal lands. This was the beginning of the policy which led to the acquirement of the Schuylkill coal lands, which ultimately led the company into the hands of a receiver and piled upon it a debt of $100,000,000. In 1869 the company had only a small debt, was paying interest on it and earning a paying dividend of ten per cent. He related the history of the several combinations made to restrict productions and thus make higher prices. The last combination agreed to shut down the mines a certain number of days in the year. Despite the statement of witnesses to the contrary, he thought that such combinations existed now, and that the Reading was a party to it.

SOON TO BE SETTLED.

Secretary Duffy of the joint committee said to a reporter to-day: "I cannot give you any details, but the Reading strike is now to be settled in short order."

NOTHING DEFINITE KNOWN.

NEW YORK, February 17.—Maxwell, of Austin Corbin's office, said this afternoon: "I have received a brief message from Philadelphia, to the effect that the Reading strike is ended. This is all we know about it. Corbin has not supplied us with particulars.

LATER—PEACE AT LAST.

POTTSVILLE, February 17—Master Workman Lewis, representing the coal miners, arrived here this evening. A joint committee ratified his action with President Corbin, and an address has been issued ordering the resumption of work at all the Reading Company's mines on Monday. The order calls on the miners of the Lehigh Valley region to remain firm until the coal companies in that region are willing to arbitrate.

SAN DIEGO.

Items of Interest from our Southern Neighbor.

SAN DIEGO, February 17.—At a meeting last night of prominent citizens and heavy capitalists, it was proposed to raise a subsidy of $500,000, or even of $1,000,000 if necessary, to be offered to the competitive railroad that will first connect San Diego with a transcontinental route, not of the Santa Fé system. It is now proposed to call a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at once, and get the matter in a definite shape before the arrival of C. Huntington, of the Southern Pacific Company. It is expected that Mr. Huntington will arrive in San Diego within two weeks.

ANOTHER LINK.

A message received to-day from Ensenada announces the construction of a peninsular railroad, to be built from Ensenada, Lower California, to San Diego. It was commenced on Wednesday, the corps of engineers starting in on the survey at San Carlos cañon.

A COAL COMPANY.

Articles of incorporation of the Union Coal Company have been filed. The principal offices are in San Diego. The cash capital, $500,000, is divided among the following stockholders: J. W. Wescott, N. H. Conklin, George Hannah, Jos. Winters, D. F. Jones, R. D. Fox, J. O. Jones, F. M. Robinson. The directors of the new company are J. W. Wescott, N. Conklin, Geo. Hannah, Jos. Winters and D. F. Jones.

FURTHER TRAFFIC FACILITIES.

The Point Loma Land and Town Company have let a contract for the construction of the first ferryboat to operate between this city and the wharf at Roseville. The machinery is to be constructed by the Risdon Iron Works of San Francisco, and the hull to be built here. The total cost of the boat is to be $10,000. She will be completed by April 1st, and have a carrying capacity of 350 passengers.

A MURDER CASE.

The body of a murdered Mexican girl was found near Oak Grove last December by her step-father, Luis Melendez. A complaint has now been filed before Justice Wilcox, charging, Melendez with the crime and a warrant has been issued for his arrest. The testimony so far taken points to his guilt.

THE WALLED KINGDOM.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 17.—The steamer City of Peking arrived from China and Japan this morning with one case of smallpox aboard and was placed in quarantine. This is the fifth successive steamer from China with smallpox on board.

Chinese papers state that syndicates are said to be active again, and it is reported that an Associated National Bank will be organized and that a railroad will be constructed from Tungchow to Tientsin.

Smallpox is prevalent to a considerable extent in Hong Kong, but is not regarded yet as epidemic.

It is reported from Canton that the Viceroy of Two Kwongs has set out with nine gunboats and 4000 troops for Hainan to restore order on the island, and punish the parties who are to be held responsible for the murder of Commissioner Tsung Kong Pai, sent out by the Viceroy.

Great drought prevails in the north of China, which is having the good effect of facilitating repairs of the destruction caused by the Yellow river inundation.

THE SMUGGLING SENSATION.

Statement Made by Collector Jno. S. Hager.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 17.—Collector of Port, John S. Hager to-day made a written statement of his views upon the alleged opium frauds. He disclaims all responsibility for legal or illegal transactions in the Surveyor's office, as that officer is appointed by the President. He states that the general and specific charges which recently have been made in the local press, have been brought to his attention during the last six months and that he has inquired into them with a view of laying the matter before the United States Attorney, but has been unable to formulate charges, owing to the want of personal knowledge of the facts, or the names of witnesses who could establish the truth of the reports. The Collector invites all persons to acquaint him of any facts concerning the matter of which they may be possessed.

MILEAGE TICKETS.

They Can be Obtained Over the Atlantic and Pacific Road.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 17.—The Atlantic and Pacific to-day resumed the sale of mileage tickets on its lines. All roads discontinued the sale of this class of tickets when the interstate law went into effect, it being problematic whether the continuance of the system was allowable by law. Formerly the mileage tickets were sold only to shippers, but they must now be sold, if sold at all, to any one who makes application for them. The rate charged is four cents per mile. The regular rate on which Atlantic and Pacific fares are based is six cents per mile.

IN SOUND STANDING.

Statement by the Directors of the Santa Fe Road.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 17.—The directors of the Atchison road state that the sales of the new bonds of the company places it in a strong position for operations this coming year. Every need of the year is provided for as far as can be foreseen, and the company will have a large balance for working capital and for possible emergency, such for instance as any piratical attacks by its competitors. The Atchison will not, it is stated, attempt any addition to its mileage excepting the completion of the work now on hand.

A MAD MARINER.

During One of His Fits He Leaps Overboard.

EUREKA, Cal., February 17.—The brig Percy Edwards arrived on Thursday from the Samoan Islands. Captain Anderson reports that on the 28th of January, the second mate, Andrew Erickson, a native of Finland, became violently insane, and locked himself in a stateroom with a loaded revolver, threatening anyone coming to the room. Four days later, having been without food for thirty hours, he came out and gave up his pistol. He was put in irons and locked in the room. On the same day he broke open the door, ran across the deck, jumped overboard and immediately disappeared from sight.

PASSED AWAY.

Death of Mrs. McCoy at Fort Vancouver.

PORTLAND, Or, February 17.—Mrs. M. Katherine L. McCoy, wife of Lieuttenant McCoy of the United States Army, and daughter of General and Mrs. John Gibbon, died at Fort Vancouver this afternoon. The deceased leaves two children. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of her death. She was ill only a short time. Lieut. McCoy and Miss Gibbon were united in marriage at General Gibbon's residence by Archbishop Gross, of Oregon, on October 8th, 1885.

PARNELL'S PLEA.

It is Defeated by an Overwhelming Majority.

TWO INTERESTING SPEECHES.

Balfour Attacks the Liberal Party and is Answered by the Grand Old Man.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

LONDON, February 17.—In the House of Commons this evening, Balfour resumed the debate on the address in reply to the Queen's speech. He commented upon the vehement character of O'Brien's remarks last evening, and said that it was nothing but what he was accustomed to from the same quarters. He denied in toto the allegations that Earl Carnarvon favored a Dublin Parliament, and opened negotiations with Parnell with the knowledge of Salisbury. Proceeding to compare the Crimes Act of 1882 and 1887, Balfour maintained that the latter did not, while the former did, create new crimes. O'Brien had boasted that his advice to the people of Mitchelstown, combined with the public opinion of England, saved the people from wholesale eviction. Government action, Balfour declared, had been modified by neither. A complaint had been made of a letter he wrote during O'Brien's imprisonment. All it stated, he said, was that O'Brien was suffering from weak lungs and an excitable disposition. Regarding the alleged tortures in prisons, he requested the prison inspectors to make a special inquiry and report the result, which would show that this was utterly untrue. As a matter of fact, O'Brien's health improved in prison, (hear—hear—) and he was two pounds heavier when he left than when he went in. (O'Brien—that is inaccurate, I was five pounds lighter.)

Turning to the Crimes Act, Balfour contended that the condition of Ireland was immensely improved, compared with the period of the Gladstone government. What a spectacle did the Liberals now present! Who, a short time ago, would suppose that a single man on the opposition bench would advocate forcible resistance to the police. He was pained at the progress of degradation in the Liberal party, in denouncing the judges, magistrates, and police, who under great difficulties stood between the society in Ireland and utter ruin, and fearlessly executed their duties, and they had the respect and admiration of every true friend of liberty and order. (Prolonged cheering.)

GLADSTONE'S REPLY.

Gladstone said that he found little in the Chief Secretary's speech that tended to assist them in getting at the truth of the question before the house. There was the question as to whether the Conservative leaders had communicated with Parnell on the subject of Home Rule, and the denials made by Balfour did not get rid of the Irish member's assertions. Continuing, he said that the Liberals were called separatists because they wished to give effect to the National aspirations of Ireland while having supreme regard for the unity of the Empire. Some of the remarks of Balfour, Gladstone said, had apparently been levelled at himself. His (Gladstone's), Nottingham speech had been absolutely misrepresented as to the statement regarding the Irish executive practice of obtaining information by permitting the police to concoct crime. He protested then, as now, against the practice as dangerous to society and tedious in itself. He had never uttered anything, over which he felt more rejoiced, than his words at Mitchelstown. He used them for the sake of preventing enormous mischief and suffering, and probably bloodshed. Gladstone declined to accept as authentic the government statistics of crime under the Coercion act until the cases cited were thoroughly investigated. The only case given in detail had been met with point blank contradiction. He had never heard the ministers express confidence in their ability to make permanent resistance to the policy of home rule. If resistance to the national voice of Ireland were pushed too far those who now guided the mind of that nation might lose their power and be displaced by ruder and more dangerous spirits. Let the government bethink themselves, and consent to legislate for Ireland as they did for England and Scotland in accordance with the constitutionally expressed wishes and permanent convictions of the people, and thus at last the present world would be blessed with the spectacle of a truly, and not nominally united empire. (Loud cheers).

THE AMENDMENT DEFEATED.

Parnell's amendment was rejected by 317 to 229.

FURIOUS PEASANTS.

More Opportunities for Operating the Crimes Act.

DUBLIN, February 17.—A packet containing gun powder, to which was attached a leaden ball, was thrown in the house of Police Inspector Kelly, at Skibbereen to-day. An explosion followed, wrecking the furniture and filling the house with choking fumes, from which the inmates barely escaped with their lives.

Windows in the house of MacKay, Crown Solicitor, of county Donegal, were smashed by unknown persons on Wednesday. MacKay was in Falcaragh at the time of the outrage, prosecuting the case against Father Stephens, convicted of inciting tenants not to pay rent.

THE FISHERY TREATY.

A Copy of it Forwarded to the Canadian Government.

OTTAWA, Ont., February 17.—A draft of the fishery treaty arrived from Washington yesterday and was, it is understood, considered at a meeting of the cabinet in the afternoon. The nature of the document will be kept secret until it is laid before Parliament.

Politicians here continue to assert that concessions equally important as those yielded by the Canadians, have been granted by the American Commissioners. Sir Charles Tupper and Thompson are expected to return tomorrow.

From Alpine Regions.

GENEVA, February 17.—The snow blockade in the St. Gothard passes, caused by the recent avalanche, has been cleared. Other passes are still blocked six metres deep.

A Swiss and Italian syndicate has been formed which will advance to the Italian government fifty million francs to complete the Simplon railway tunnel and the railway line which will connect therewith.

A Financial Scheme.

ST. PETERSBURG, February 17.—M. Vichnegradski, Minister of Finance, has submitted to the Council of the Empire a law to establish a metallic standard as a preparatory measure to the consolidation of Russian monetary currency. The object of the measure is to bring gold and silver into circulation to prepare the way for a compulsory metal standard.

A Blow at Flourens.

PARIS, February 17.—In the deputies to-day Herrisse, Radical, moved that the Cabinet Ministers be forbidden to seek election as deputies or senators during their terms of office, or within six months after getting office. M. Carriens declared that the proposal was directed against Minister Flourens personally.

An Unauthentic Report.

BERLIN, February 17.—The North German Gazette, Bismarck's organ, denies the statement made by the Freisinig yesterday, that a bill will be introduced in the Reichstag providing for the appointment of a representative Crown Prince in the event of his being summoned to act as Regent.

Emperor William Ailing.

LONDON, February 17.—At the Parliamentary election at Southwark today the Gladstonian candidate was returned by a large majority.

Passed at Last.

BERLIN, February 17.—The Reichstag to-day, after six hours debate passed the Anti-Socialist bill.

A CHANCE FOR THE POLICE.

$2000 Reward Offered For a Chicago Criminal.

CHICAGO, February 17.—Chief of Police Hubbard to-night issued the following circular:

$2000 reward. Lookout for and arrest A. J. Snells, the alleged murderer of William B. Tascott, alias Gathright, alias Monroe, alias Scott, alias Clark, 22 or 23 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, 165 pounds weight, slim built, very erect, full round face, heavy eye-brows, very fair complexion, dark brown hair, large blue eyes, small thin dark moustache. He has a square top ring, set with garnets and pearls, one pearl missing, may carry a cane with a round head, engraved with "W. D. T." in monogram; also a russet-colored oval valise, 18 inches long and 8 deep, hung by a strap over his shoulder. The above reward will be paid for his capture and detention until the officers arrive.

A BAD RECORD.

Startling features of the case are that William B. Tascott, the man wanted, is the son of a prominent and wealthy citizen, Col. J. B. Tascott, a leading wholesale paint merchant of the city. He was born and raised within a few blocks of Snell. Though well educated, he early displayed a liking for the companionship of wild boys, and it is said that he served a term in the Kentucky penitentiary for burglary. He returned a few months ago, and his family and friends tried to reform him. One of these friends, Mrs. Henrietta Owsly, invited him to her house and young Tascott returned the kindness by robbing her. The theft was discovered by Mrs. Owsly who refused to prosecute. For several weeks before the Snell murder Tascott boarded with Mrs. Wicks, in the same neighborhood by the name of Scott, and is thought to be one of the gang who committed all the burglaries which took place in that vicinity before the murder. Since then no trace of him can be found. Mr. Snell's estate was probated today. It is estimated at $4,500,000, but of this $3,000,000 was conveyed to his wife four years ago. He left no will and the balance of the estate will be divided among his wife and four children.

Lost at Sea.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 17.—It is reported at the Merchants' Exchange that the schooner Salisbury, from Port Townsend to Montevideo, has been abandoned at sea. The crew were saved.

The Salisbury was lost during the heavy storm off Cape Flattery. She filled with water and was deserted at last by the men. She was loaded at Port Discovery and cleared on February 5th at Port Townsend to put to sea three days afterward. Her cargo of lumber was valued at over $10,000. The loss is fully insured. The crew arrived at Port Townsend to-day.

Killed by a Falling Tree.

SAN BUENAVENTURA, February 17.—Peter Dronlon, an old citizen of this county, who lived near Hueneme, met with a singular and fatal accident yesterday. He was standing a short distance from the body of a gum tree as it was being chopped down or toppled, when the tree fell. It rebounded, striking the ladder which rested against the standing trunk. The ladder struck Dronlon on the side of the face, breaking his jaw and crushing his skull.

A Man Brutally Murdered in Montana.

ESCAPE OF THE ASSASSIN.

Two Persons Perish in a Snowslide in Washington Territory.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

BUTTE, Mont., February 17.—At Anaconda this morning, Wm. Martin, proprietor of the Planters' House, murdered Patrick Reardon, an employé of the Anaconda Smelter, in cold blood. The two men were walking along the street together and had words about six dollars which Reardon owed Martin for board. Suddenly they stopped, when Martin pulled his revolver and shot Reardon in the head twice, knocking him insensible. Martin then kicked his still unconscious victim between the shoulders, and finally shot him in the back of the head, killing him instantly. Martin then put his hands in his pockets and walked off toward the foothills. The citizens, soon realising the enormity of the crime, started over a hundred strong in pursuit of the murderer. They will lynch the culprit if they catch him.

SERIOUS SNOW SLIDE.

Two Persons Perish in a Descending Avalanche.

PORTLAND, February 17.—Particulars have just been received of a snow slide on the Upper Wenatchee, Washington Territory, a few days ago, resulting in the death of two persons. James Brisky lives near the Wenatchee, and on the day of the fatal slide Mrs. Brisky, her two small children, and Rev. J. Biggs were in the house. Brisky himself was some distance away chopping wood, and while so engaged some men near by shouted to him, pointing out at the same instant the mass of moving snow and trees. Brisky sprang forward, rushing toward the house. He was caught in the avalanche buried to the knees, and carried across a gulch, narrowly escaping a fearful death. The house was buried and swept some distance. Both Mrs. Brisky and Rev. Biggs were crushed to death in an instant. Strange to say, the children escaped without the slightest injuries, some timbers of the house being so crossed as to screen them. The snow was ten feet deep. The bodies of the victims were recovered and the two children soon rescued.

CONSOLIDATION URGED.

How to Settle Disputes Between the Warring Railroads.

CHICAGO, February 17.—All the interested roads are represented at the meeting of the managers of the Northwestern lines. The Committee reported that the only way to secure peace and harmony was to merge the Western, Northwestern and Southwestern Associations into one to be governed by the same rules and regulations, and with one head. A Committee was appointed to confer with the managers of the Southwestern lines and arrange for a joint conference at the earliest moment. A resolution that all rates be restored on March 1st to the tariffs in effect prior to January 31st was defeated, the Burlington line refusing to restore the rates till a permanent agreement was adopted.

ONE THOUSAND MORE.

A Mammoth Excursion Heading for California.

ST. LOUIS, February 17.—A California excursion train of 19 cars including 11 Pullman sleepers running in two sections left with 400 people this city last night via the Iron Mountain route and a second train of 30 cars including twenty Pullman sleepers in four sections, with 600 people, left Kansas City this morning via the Missouri Pacific. These trains will join at Fort Worth, Texas, and from there will be run in six sections, making the largest and longest train that ever crossed the continent.

New Charges Made.

INDIANAPOLIS, February 17.—In the Federal Court to-day the attorney for the Cincinnati Hamilton and Dayton road dismissed the previous application and filed a new suit against William R McKeen, President of the Vandalia road, to recover $889,000, paid on a contract to purchase from McKeen the controlling interest in the Vandalia line and asks that the contract be set aside.

Seymour Undoubtedly Elected.

DETROIT, February 17.—The Free Press has received returns from every county in the 11th Congressional District with the exception of Manitou. They show a plurality of 526 for Seymour (Republican), and as the entire vote of Manitou does not usually exceed 150, Seymour's plurality cannot fall below 400.

Dismissed.

LEXINGTON, Ky., February 17.—Mrs. Lucretia Munday has been acquitted of the charge of murdering her husband in 1882, to secure over $30,000 insurance.

ANSCHLAG SANE.

So Said the Special Jury of Yesterday.

WHAT THE DOCTORS THOUGHT.

An Important Letter Arrives from his Mother in Germany Just in Time.

At 10 A. M. yesterday the Anschlag case was called in Department No. 1, and Attorney McGregor asked for a continuance of the cause, for grounds read and filed in the affidavits published in the HERALD.

Two affidavits were filed, one by Mr. McGregor and one by Attorney Peyton, both being to the same effect.

The Court stated that the defense seemed to misapprehend the purpose of the present inquiry. The jury called was not to decide whether the defendant was insane at the time of the commission of the crime, but to determine whether the defendant at the present time is insane, or in such a condition of mind as to be able to comprehend and know fully the nature of the crime with which he is charged, and the nature of the proceedings against him. The motion was denied and the term trial jurors called.

Attorney Peyton stated to the Court that under the circumstances he did not feel that they could proceed with the case either with justice to the defendant or the attorneys in the case, hence, they would make no defense whatever in the matter. They were not prepared to go into the case, and had no means at present of procuring the evidence desired and necessary.

The court asked the District Attorney if he had any evidence he wished to offer. He responded that he did not deem it necessary to introduce testimony, as none was offered on the part of the prisoner, but that he would call a few witnesses.

Dr. W. G. Cochran was sworn, and testified: I am a physician, and have been engaged in the practice of my profession for nineteen years. I visited the defendant Anschlag in the County Jail yesterday. Was with him for one hour and a quarter, in company with Drs. Maynard, Mathewson and Mr. McCoon, the interpreter. We examined his head and found a depression on the upper part of the back of his head. We inquired into his family history, as far as we could, but from all I could learn there was nothing to suggest to me that the defendant was insane.

Cross examination: I have never made the human mind or nervous diseases a specialty. From the examination I made, I am satisfied he is sane. I found no depressions in the defendant's head, except such as are normal. I cannot speak German, and depended entirely on an interpreter. He was not sworn. I am a graduate of the Rush Medical College of Chicago and the Medical Institute of Philadelphia.

Q. "What are the different characteristics of insanity caused by injuries on the head?"

A. "They differ."

Q. "Are medical men not able to classify causes of insanity."

A. "Yes, sir; there are several."

DR. H. H. MAYNARD

Testified: I have practiced medicine since 1861. I made an examination of the defendant. I found a depression at the union of the posterior and parieta bones, but I do not think it was more than natural.

A great many persons have like depressions and are of superior intellect. From all I learned while at the County Jail, I do not consider the defendant insane.

DR. R. C. KIRKPATRICK

Testified: I am a physician and have been engaged in the practice of medicine since 1862. I made an examination of the defendant yesterday, and from it I am unable to say that I discove[r] anything which would lead me to doubt his sanity. I found a depression at the union of the parietal and occipital bone. I think it was not the result of an accident. I think the man was capable of comprehending right and wrong when I examined him yesterday.

Cross-examination: I have treated a number of patients laboring under insanity, but I have never made nervous diseases a special study to detect. It may follow immediately after an accident or follow after years. Insane persons exhibit symptons as different as the individuals. Some persons may affect to have wealth and to be aristocrats; others may seek to destroy property or even life.

DR. J. N. HANNAN

Testified: I have practiced medicine for some twenty-five years, and have, during that time, examined and treated a number of insane persons. I examined the defendant yesterday. I was with him for an hour and a half, and from my investigation I was convinced that he was sane. We carried on a conversation by means of an interpreter. I do not consider it necessary to know the antecedents of a patient in order to judge of the sanity at the time of the examination.

DR. P. T. HICKINS

Testified: I am a physician, and have been so engaged for about twelve years. I examined the defendant in the County Jail yesterday evening. We first had him brought in the same room, and we watched him for some twenty minutes, as I consider that one of the best means of detecting insanity. I afterwards engaged him in conversation and examined his head. The depression referred to, appeared to me to be normal. From my investigation I am satisfied he is sane.

Cross-examination: I was of the opinion that the man was insane when I went to the jail, but changed my mind after investigation. The depression on the head is often found on persons' heads. One of the doctors present last night had a larger one than Anschlag.

The District Attorney announced that this closed the testimony for the State and upon the refusal of the attorneys for the defendant to offer argument or evidence the case was given to the jury, which rendered a verdict without leaving the box, declaring the defendant sane. The jury was discharged and the trial of the cause suspended ordered taken up at 10 A. M. to-day.

An Important Letter.

To day's proceedings in the Anschlag murder case, will probably prove very interesting, if rumor is to be believed. It is confidently expected that before nightfall all the evidence will be in, and that the case will be given to the jury. One of the expected excitements of the day will be the testimony of Anschlag, if the determination of his attorneys, to place him on the stand, is adhered to. Some time since, the attorney for the defence stated, that they would probably place Anschlag on the witness stand and if he intends to tell his story he will tell it to-day. Besides this, the prosecution will recall two of its witnesses, and bring out new facts, and not only will this be done, but it will offer in evidence a letter to Anschlag signed "Lovingly your Mamma," received by Anschlag at the County Jail on Thursday night. This letter will entirely disprove Anschlag's statements in regard to the large sums of money expected from Germany, for it recites fully his financial condition, and was written to him when he was supposed to be at Bangor, Cal., and making arrangements for the purchase of another ranch. It was dated January 6th, 1888, and was re-directed from Bangor to Los Angeles on February 14th. It opens by showering upon him the thanks of the writer for the many Christmas and New Year greetings sent by him to her, and for a calendar which she received. His little sisters also sent their their thanks for little books which he had sent to them. After these preliminaries the letter continues in a business strain. His mother says: "I send you a remittance of 800 marks ($200). It is for the first payment on your ranch at Bangor. Don't be in too big a hurry. Another remittance of 200 marks (the $50 received at Santa Ana)." The letter again advises him not to be in too big a hurry, and reminds him that his share of his grandmother's estate is only 2000 marks, and from this "you will expect that I will deduct what I have already sent." Deducting the amounts sent, 1000 marks, leaves 1000 marks, or about $475 the whole of the big fortune which Anschlag could have expected from Germany. The letter finally states that the house has been mortgaged, and that the balance of the money will be forthcoming soon.

The arrival of this letter at this stage of the proceedings was unexpected, but it is considered by the prosecution as an important bit of evidence.

NATURE'S LAWS.

Interesting Lecture Before the W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Rose Alduch, a student of Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene at the Boston University, delivered a very interesting address before the members of the W. C. T. U. at Trinity Methodist Church, Fort street, yesterday afternoon, on the "Physical Education of Women." "Women," she said, "as the mothers and guardians of youth, are responsible for the good or evil condition of social life, and it is their duty to learn how best to meet this solemn responsibility. While much of the misery of the world, springs from the gilded saloon it is worth our while to ask, if a large part of this moral misery may not have its origin in other kinds of shops—madame modes and dame fashions for instance. Even the most educated women stand in need of more exact knowledge concerning the science of being and the laws of health. My efforts are directed to the intelligent and mature women and mothers in good society, for all reforms have their origin in the thought and conduct of that class, favored by fortune with means and leisure to regulate their lives according to correct principles. If license and frivolity be the prevailing mode among what are termed the better class, be sure that in all other grades we shall find the reflection of its usage.

It is a common error to believe that all reference whatever to the mysteries of sex must be more or less shocking to the sensitive mind of youth. Unhappily they have been made so by the false conceptions held of them. Only when the youth of both sexes are taught the dignity and sanctity of sex will they understand how to revere it. An intelligent comprehension of the law of health affects the mental as well as the physical development of the individual. The moral nature also is indissolubly bound up with the physical and mental. Those who usually try to arouse interest in physical culture dwell only on the material side of the subject, which awakens only a temporary attention. It is in the moral nature that men have the greatest unity. Regarded as mere matter, the mechanism of the body is of brief concern to the mind, but when viewed as the temporal instrument of the immortal spirit, it assumes a new dignity and sanctity, one which urges us to investigate its laws in order that the highest moral development may be reached through it. The bodily senses must be the tools even of the greatest genius. With diseased physical functions no one can perform the duties of life worthily. The effect of mental states upon physical conditions "has assumed such significance that both medical and metaphysical science are devoting to this their best learning."

The social training of children was hinted at. The ignorance of women in regard to pre-natal influences, to the dress, and proper care of children was enlarged upon, and the great responsibility thus resting upon women.

It is impossible to give a synopsis of the lecture that will do it justice. Mrs. Aldrich has lectured, in many cities of the East, on these topics and has been flatteringly received. She will remain in this city for some time, and it is to be hoped that many ladies will seek an opportunity to enlighten themselves on these topics so vital to all.

South San Jacinto!

Hemet Land Co., Capital $1,000,000. Lake Hemet Water Co., Capital, $2,000,000

---: THE HEMET LAND COMPANY:---

Now offer for sale 7000 acres of the Best and Cheapest Land in California at $150 per acre. Easy Terms. The heart of the magnificent San Jacinto Valley, San Diego County

The only great valley as yet undeveloped and cheap. The richest of soil, abundance of water, and an elevation of 1600 to 1900 feet above sea level, making a climate that is delightfully warm, bracing and dry; the perfect climate for all throat and lung troubles.

The Grandest Water Supply in the State!

Eighteen miles up in the mountains, at an elevation of 4375 feet, a granite dam costing $130,000 is being constructed in Hemet valley, to hold the water which is supplied by the immense snow shed of Mt. San Jacinto, 10,987 feet high, Mt. Tocwish and Mt. Herke. This will form LAKE HEMET, covering 600 acres at an average depth of 65 feet, and containing 6,000,000,000 gallons, or 9000 miner's inches of water, enough to irrigate more than 100,000 acres of land. This water will be delivered in 22-inch iron pipes, under 723 feet fall. An inch of water guaranteed to every eight acres, and water right conveyed with every acre sold.

NO FOGS! NO FROST!

Unsurpassed for the finest Naval Oranges, Raisin Grapes, and all Deciduous Fruits. South San Jacinto will be the city of Northern San Diego County. Broad streets and avenues. In the center is a beautiful hill of 600 acres reserved for a park, upon which this winter 100,000 forest and ornamental trees, already purchased, will be planted, surrounded by a boulevard four miles long, 100 feet wide, with double avenue of trees. Brick hotel, brick offices and stores now being erected. $500,000 to be spent in improvements this coming year. Everything that unlimited capital can do will be done to make a model city.

Climate, Soil, Water and Capital have made Southern California, and SOUTH SAN JACINTO has them all, as no other one place has. It immediately adjoins San Jacinto 18 miles east of Perris, on the Santa Fe, and 14 miles south of San Gorgonio on the Southern Pacific, and at present reached by daily stages. The Santa Fe is now actually building direct from Perris. Get in before the railroad boom.

Monrovia.

The phenomenal growth of this city has been the subject of conversation among the people of the entire United States today. It stands a peer without a rival on this continent—the largest city of its age on earth. It has had higher compliments, both from the tongues of distinguished travelers and popular newspapers, than any city on this coast. It represents more wealth and prosperity, and has more of which to be proud, in the way of natural advantages, than any city in California. The advent of the Rapid Transit Railroad gives Monrovia the foremost position as a suburban city in Southern California, with the Santa Fé now built, the Southern Pacific securing a right of way, and the Rapid Transit,

Monrovia's own railroad, with a schedule bespoken of 30 minutes to the center of the city, a depot to be built at the Pico House for a terminus, who does say what Monrovia will be in two years hence? On

Friday, February 24, 1888,

A grand special excursion will leave Santa Fé depot, Los Angeles, at 9 A. M. for Monrovia, and a special credit auction sale will be held on that day, and the well-known Pacific View tract will be sold to the highest bidder, without reserve, in large villa residence lots, at whatever price the public deem it worth, as we prefer them to set their own price, and our terms will be to suit, buyers will have an option of ¼ cash, ¼ three months, ¼ six months, ¼ twelve months; or ⅓ cash, ⅓ six months, ⅓ one year; or ½ cash, ½ one year at 10 per cent.

This is the most desirable property ever offered at public auction, without reserve, in Southern California and the owners are willing to sell this to parties who are likely to improve it and in this manner greatly benefit them, as they own a large body of land adjoining, which will as a consequence materially increase in value. Never has any investments in Southern California proven so satisfactory as have those made in Monrovia during 1887-7 and 1888.

The Pacific View tract adjoins the city of Monrovia on the east, and is a portion of the Broadbury property, so well known to Californians. It is only 500 yards from the business center of the city, has the main street car line of the place now in operation through the entire tract. Pure mountain water is piped free of charge forever. Many handsome cottages and fine residences now adorn this property, being located thereon. The altitude of this property is 1400 feet above the sea level and eighty feet above the city on a villa sloping to the south, commanding an unparalleled view of the San Gabriel valley.

We have secured every accomodation available, over the California Central Railroad, and believe we will be able to accomodate all who come. Remember the day, Friday, February 24th, 1888. Trains leave 9 A. M. Tickets at Depot, or California Central Railroad office. Call at 114 West First street for particulars. H. H. Matlock, auctioneer; Cyrus A. Campbell, manager.

Improvements in the many charming townsites, lately laid out in the vicinity of Los Angeles, are simply astounding, especially so is it the case with those located on the line of the great "Santa Fe" route between this city and San Bernardino.

In the new town of Marquette, near the world-famous vineyard of Cucamonga, a fine hotel has been built, furnished and occupied, a first-class livery stable is stocked and operated, a store building near the depot erected, and now a fine church and school house are to be put up at once. Nearly one hundred lots have been sold to actual settlers, and before summer sets in many residences will be erected. The owners of this beautiful townsite have decided to erect eighteen fine cottages and to give them away to actual settlers. Eighteen of the finest blocks have been sold to that indefatigable boomer, Frank McCoye, who will place them on the market very soon at the nominal price of $100 each, payable $30 down and $10 per month. On each of the eighteen blocks a handsome cottage will be built and the holder of the lucky ticket, drawing a house, will find a beautiful home ready for him for $100.

The water supply is enormous and is already piped in front of every lot. This will bear the strictest investigation by intending purchasers. Particulars can be had on Monday, February 20th, at No. 23, North Spring street, corner Franklin.

The Election To-Day.

The contest for Councilman in the Second Ward to-day will, without doubt, result in the election of Mr. John Moriarty, the Democratic nominee. The graceful withdrawal of Mr. R. A. Ling, whose friends for a time claimed that he had received the nomination, will operate to give Mr. Moriarty the full vote of the Democracy of the ward, and that means his election by a handsome majority. Mr. Moriarty has resided for many years in Los Angeles. He has been identified with her progress and contributed materially to her prosperity. He is a man of substance, and well known for his straightforwardness, intelligence and integrity. He possesses all the elements of a useful and reliable Councilman, and should receive the support, not only of his own party, but of those Republicans who regard fitness as superior to the mere claims of partisanship.

Elements of Prosperity.

The elements of expansion and prosperity in Southern California are such as one would look in vain to find in any other country. As a corollary to our superb climate, the rich growths of our section give it a value which the productions of other parts do not realize. Los Angeles county alone is imperial in its resources, and when we come to supplement its productions of the soil with its mineral treasures, its petroleum and its quarries of marble and granite, the elements of prosperity are so extensive and diffused that it would be presumption to place a limit on the future greatness of our county. In conversation a few days with a distinguished English geologist and mining engineer, who is now inspecting properties for mining syndicates in London, that gentleman flatly told us that the mining wealth of this section surpassed that of any region he had ever explored. He said that our extensive placers and quartz mines were wonderfully rich in the precious metals, and that whenever they are worked on correct business principles, under the direction of capable men, they will constitute a source of wealth not even second to our wonderful citrus and other fruit productions.

It is manifest to any intelligent person who has made himself familiar with Los Angeles county, that her soil can be made capable of supporting a population of over a million people. Of the 3,000,000 acres of land embraced within her boundaries, over two millions will be subjugated to successful tillage. Not one acre in a hundred is now farmed. Indeed, so little is done in this way at present that even the local supplies needed have not been fully met by our producers. Whilst the city of Los Angeles and all the suburban towns are overflowing with people, the county is so sparsely settled that great stretches of space can be found in any direction that are yet to be covered with thrifty farmhouses. Here is a condition that speaks for itself. The wants of the vast numbers of people seeking our country for health or out of curiosity are to be supplied. The great swelling out of our growing city by constant accessions of new people is creating wants that will give rise to new industries. Extensive manufactories must follow on the heels of increased population. The impetus to commerce from this source is astonishing. Even now the merchants of our city are taxed to their utmost to fill orders. A few days ago we entered a store to make a purchase. "How is business with you, Brown?" we asked. "To tell you the truth," he replied, "I dread to see people come into the store. We have more to do than we can attend to." Of course the business of the place will have to be done. If the merchants already established have more than they can do, others will come in to take a share of it. This means the continual growth of our city, the expansion of its limited business streets to other streets that are now residence localities. We have now at least seventy-five thousand people living within the boundaries of the Pueblo de Los Angeles. A year from the present time we may justly claim a round one hundred thousand and when the census of 1890 is taken it will show the giant city of South California with a population of one hundred and twenty-five thousand people. There is nothing visionary about that. The accessions of the past two years justify the prediction. A friend of ours (Major B. C. Truman) who has just returned from extensive travels at home and abroad, assures us that wherever he has been the most earnest inquiries are made about Los Angeles and Southern California. Everybody seems to be smitten with a desire to come here, and the stream of immigration will continue to flow towards us until all our acres are dotted with thrifty farmhouses and the populations of our cities and towns have swollen into twenty-fold their present numbers.

COL. JOHN REID, of Lexington, Mo., and a prominent citizen of that State, is on a visit to Southern California. He recently wrote a letter from Santa Barbara to his home paper, the Intelligencer, which treats mainly of what he saw in Los Angeles and of the impressions our city made upon him. The Colonel is a graceful, eloquent and graphic writer, and the beauties and attractions of our section seem to have made a very decided impression upon him in its favor. His letter abounds in appreciative notes and observations upon our city, of which the following is a specimen:

A population of 75,000 is claimed to have residence in the city, and after repeating journeys from my hotel, miles away, north, south, east and west, I have concluded this is not an exaggerated claim. North and northwest the city juts to, and has climbed in places, a mountain side; east, south and southwest, it hath no defined boundary, "no pent up Utica contracts" its promise of expansion and mighty empire; in these directions man may go on "marking the earth with ruin" until "his control is stopped by the shore" of the great sea. There is an amazing enthusiasm here, having in its service gentlemen of great intelligence and established integrity. Two or three of your associates in the Missouri legislature, one a kinsman of mine, are prominent among them. I have been engineered up, down, through and around, shown most of the "glittering generalities," heard the hymnster's melodious voice proclaiming a decade in Los Angeles better than a cycle in the East. Los Angeles will surely become conspicuous as the American home of opulence and age, and supreme comfort. It is receiving attention from men of means residing at present in every section of our common country. I have met capitalists from Maine and Minnesota, the Louisianan as well as the Georgian; rich representatives of a thousand homes are here upon the sunset side of the continent in quest of health and quiet retirement, from whence undisturbed by elemental strife or corroding cares they may live backward to infancy, or contemplate as best they can in perfect peace an eternity of which mortals can nothing know.

In the new part of the city broad, interminable streets, bordered with sidewalks covered for miles and miles with artificial marble, curbed with the same material, cross each other at right angles, and wherever your eyes may turn you will observe buildings in course of construction, many of which are of very ornate and costly character, intended as homes of luxury for the affluent. A hotel to cost a million dollars has the foundation now being prepared; the Government has appropriated for a Custom House. In short all I look upon bespeaks a present prosperity and foretells of a coming splendor where an accumulation of wealth and a climate of Heaven will combine to create a paradise more delightful than the Orient has ever had or human hands hitherto created.

THE New York Tribune has recently sent out a circular to several prominent people on the question of putting lumber on the free list. One of these circulars was sent to the Board of Forestry of this State. That Board replied that they emphatically believed in placing lumber on the free list. Their principal reason for the opinion they hold is, that the exclusion of foreign lumber by the high tariff is operating to denude our forests in so rapid a manner as to cause the most serious apprehension. At the rate at which timber is now being destroyed, it will not be many lustrums before the forests of California, Oregon and Washington Territory will be things of the past. To admit lumber free would save our forests and cheapen the cost of building material to the people. They might have added that the lumber on this coast is in the hands of a monopoly, who are constantly increasing its price to consumers. Some idea may be had of how the people suffer from this close corporation. A house that could have been built for $2,500 four or five years ago will now cost $5000. With lumber on the free list the double object of preserving our forests and building cheap homes would be attained.

AN architect informed us yesterday that the lumber dealers of Los Angeles have increased the price of surface stock to $50 per thousand. Dressed lumber in San Francisco is quoted at $35 per thousand, the price asked here for rough boards. The vast difference of cost in the two cities cannot be justified on correct commercial principles. Lime that cost $3 a barrel here can be had in San Francisco for $1.50. In fact, the prices of all kinds of building materials have been run up so high here as to cause many, who would build if they were at a reasonable mark, to withhold contracts for improving their property until prices return to something like a normal figure. Of course the demand for building material has been prodigious, and it will continue so in spite of the high prices; but there should be some way in which the people of this city could procure timber and other articles, entering into the the construction of houses at prices consistant with those demanded in San Francisco.

MAJOR B. C. TRUMAN arrived here yesterday from San Francisco. Since the Major last visited Los Angeles he has traveled very extensively throughout the Atlantic States and Europe. Our section is indebted to Major Truman for the very effective presentation of its advantages and resources everywhere he has gone. He has done this not only personally in his intercourse with people abroad, but also by his writings in leading journals and in the many phamphlets he has published as the head of the Southern Pacific Company's literary bureau. As this is Major Truman's home, where his affections and interests are located, we shall look for his return one of these days to permanently stay. None will be more cordially welcomed than he and his charming family when the time comes for them to again set up their lares and penates in in the City of the Angels.

THE Republicans gave up the fight for Councilman in the Second Ward by last night nominating Frank A. West as their candidate. Of course, if they had the slightest hope of winning the fight the nomination would have been given to some substantial and well-known citizen of the ward. Mr. West has been one of Mr. Mason's Deputy Assessors, and was for some time employed in a clerical capacity by the City Water Company. We see by the directory that his residence is on Commercial street.

MR. R. A. LING has reconsidered his intention of running for Councilman in the Second Ward, and withdrawn from the canvass. We congratulate Mr. Ling on this wise resolve. He has done the correct thing, from a party point of view, and from the facts as developed in the proceedings of the meeting at which he thought he had been nominated. Mr. Ling's graceful withdrawal from the contest will be appreciated by the party of which he has always been an active and conspicuous member.

THE Kern County Gazette has a scathing article on the presumption of General Vandever in going before the President and protesting against the nomination of Mr. E. O. Miller as Register of the Land Office at Visalia. Of course this gratuitous interference on the part of the de facto Congressman ignobly failed of its purpose; and Mr. Miller was nominated by the President and his appointment confirmed by the Senate.

THE Prohibition Party has nominated Mr. J. W. Booth for Councilman from the Second Ward. Mr. Booth is a much stronger man than Mr. West, and equally as good a Republican. He will doubtless divide the Republican vote with Mr. West and receive the full strength of the vote of his own party. Under these circumstances it is apples to dollars that Mr. Moriarty takes the seat.

THE Urgency Deficiency bill, for the relief of the postal service in Southern California, has been passed. This will enable Postmaster Dickinson to place the postoffices in this section in thorough working order at once.

Judge Ling Withdraws.

Not changing my mind, as to my right to the nomination for Councilman, but believing that by still remaining in the field as a candidate it will materially affect the result of the election in the Second ward, I hereby withdraw from the contest, as I do not wish to jeopardize my party, but would prefer to surrender personal desires rather than attain political success. Returning my sincere thanks to my friends who so heroically stood by me in this contest, I now ask them to acquiese with me in my final determination of withdrawal.

R. A. LING.

If the idiots who are excited because the President presented a copy of the Constitution to the Pope could be induced to read that document themselves they might possibly become the possessors of more sense than they have now.—[Philadelphia Times, Ind.

NO OTHER DISEASE HAS ENTAILED as much suffering or hastened the breaking down of the constitution as

NASAL CATARRH.

The sense of smell, of hearing and of tasting, as well as the voice and mind, are more or less affected and eventually yield to its destructive influence. The poisonous germs are distributed over the system, destroying the vital forces and breaking down the most robust constitutions.

Medical and scientific researches has at last discovered how to treat successfully this dread disease by Inhalation of Medicated Air or Vapor.

PICTURESQUE PASADENA.

A Long String of Rapidly Growing Towns—The Crown of the Valley Easily First.

"See Rome and die" is what they used to say, of the eternal city, when her seven hills ruled the world. See the foothills of Los Angeles Co., stay there and live, is what the valetudinaries of the United States are saying every day. And they are not only saying this but they are doing it. Fifteen years ago from the eastern end of Downey Avenue bridge to San Bernardino the upper mesas of this county were a sheepwalk. The land was worth from 50 cents to $3 per acre. There was an oasis of cultivation, among which, Sunny Slope, the home of Senator L. J. Rose, ranked easily first, here and there studding this great desolation of cattle ranges. As late as 1880 from the Arroyo Seco to the Santa Anita, Pasadena was the only thing in the way of a town, and it was a scattering village of fruit growers, prosperous but sparsely peopled. The Sierra Madre villa hung lonely as an eagle's eye on the brow of the mountain, with Mr. Abbot Kinney's lovely place the only companion for many miles around.

Yesterday a representative of the HERALD traversed the country above outlined. Crossing the river, he found three bridges spanning the stream to give 8000 residents of East Los Angeles access to the main portion of this city. That section of the pueblo is splendid in its handsome residences, and rich in business blocks, stores, banks and all other signs of prosperity. The vendors have invaded the most sacred soil of the river divinities and many homes are found disputing the rights of the naiads and dryads of the streams and woods. Along the Sycamore grove section, so dear to the hearts of the old picknickers, there are dozens of really handsome residences along the main road. Passing up to the higher mesa, Highland Park breaks upon the eye like a vision of beauty. Mr. A. W. Potts, the whilom Democratic war-horse, when so long as he was in the field no circumstances could circumvent, has here a lovely model home. New houses are going up on all sides. Residences crown some of the sightly knolls to the left of the road—and Highland Park has a fine thoroughfare running its entire length—which are magnificent in their proportions, and picturesquely beautiful in design and finish. The next halt is made at Garvanzo, a large town already, and growing rapidly. It is soon to have a rapid transit railroad for its own use running to this city. It already has a fine water system, the fluid being as clear as crystal, that it comes from the Arroyo Seco settles that point. Garvanzo also has a very pretty hotel, and it has the reputation of being the best kept hostelry in the country. Who would have believed six years since that this spot would to-day have residences whose cost will run away up in the thousands, with all the outward signs of refinement taste and intelligence, as well as of wealth, surrounding them?

Beyond the Arroyo Seco is Lincoln Park, a pretty and improving place, nestling among the glossy verdure of the evergreen oaks, and with an unsurpassed view of the grand mountain range to the north.

Below the big Raymond Hotel a big town is rapidly springing into being. It known as South Pasadena. This place has had a fine hotel for some time past, called the South Pasadena hotel, and now on the Marengo Tract there has been built a second hostelry. It is called the "Marengo," and is as well arranged and as handsome a country hotel as there is in this section. D. W. Graham has selected the most sightly knoll in the place and on it he has erected one of the finest residences in the State.

THE CROWN OF THE VALLEY.

To know what Pasadena has become, you must go there and see it. Word painting will not convey a bright enough conception of one of the prettiest cities the sun looks down on in his diurnal course around the world. It contains 12,000 inhabitants. They live in the cosiest cottages, the handsomest residences or the finest hotels in America. Every home is embowered in flowers, the grounds are all aglow with flowering shrubs; all the streets are wide and well made, the air is as pure as the breath of heaven. The business blocks, the banks and other insignia of material progress, and of substantial improvement, indicate that this people have faith in their city. The leading streets are filled with people showing that this is no prospective city, it is one in reality today. Why, Pasadena is spending at this moment $100,000 to make streets, and they are thoroughfares worthy of the name. This crown of the valley is expending another $100,000 in putting in one of the best sewer systems in the Union. She lies hundreds of feet above all miasmatic vapors; her atmosphere is pure; she proposes to keep it so. The Chinese wash houses are banished to the outskirts of the city. Horses are not allowed to stand all day in the streets. Pasadena believes in cleanliness and in good streets. She has them at any cost. Nor is the material side of life the only thing intelligent and progressive people here think of. Pasadena has an opera house more spacious and more richly finished than ours is. She has a public library of which any city might be proud. Pasadena has schools and colleges of all sorts, and they are all full of the young idea, that flourishes as prolific and as beautiful as any of the lower forms of life. And, passing from the material and the mental to the spiritual, the Crown crowns all her achievements by spending last year $150,000 for churches. New York might point with pride to some of these edifices which the Pasadenans have erected to enshrine their faith. Cleanliness and Godliness go together. For sewers, $100,000; for churches, $150,000; and then for streets $100,000 more, and for the shrine of the imagination, the opera house, at least $75,000. Such a people will attract more of the same sort.

THE SIERRA MADRE.

Some reporter has written a story of Pasadena to the effect that a visitor to that charming spot became bewildered and thought he had recently entered the Gates of Paradise. An ardent admirer of the bench of land perched under the very base of the mountain where the Sierra Madre Villa is built, as he stood on the veranda and looked over the valley thirty miles to Wilmington south, and thirty miles to Santa Ana east, with all the wealth of broad expanse, studded with vineyard, orange grove, farmhouse, hamlet, village and city growing between, said: "Here must have been the spot where Satan took the Messiah to tempt him, and I never knew how great the miracle of self-denial was until now." That most magnificent view never looked lovelier than yesterday. The green was of the most vivid hue. The country has developed marvelously during the past year. The masses of cloud made a most pleasant contrast with the earth and yet did not obscure the vision. The hotel is full of visitors, and now it has a rival near by. Where lived the past six years the Vosburgde brothers have reclaimed a broad area of table land from the possession of the boulders, enterprising people have purchased a liberal piece of land and on it built a most admirably designed and arranged sanitarium. It is in charge of a lady physician of much experience, and is already attracting the sick from near and far. It is 1400 feet above the sea. No miasmatic vapors ever approach within miles of it. It is above the fogs, above the chilly breath of the frost king, it is supplied with water the purest ever distilled in Nature's laboratory, and if anywhere the sick can be made well it is here. And now the reporter has told a story as long as his ride, and will not trouble the reader by telling how he got home, or what he went out for.

HEALTH MATTERS.

Dr. Hagan Transfers His Duties to Dr. Reese.

The Board of Health met yesterday afternoon in the Mayor's office. Present, Hon. W. H. Workman, Mayor and Chairman, Messrs. Humphreys, Gibbs, Hanley and Doctors Reese and Hagan. A communication was received from Thomas Brady, the recently discharged keeper of the pesthouse, asking for a rehearing and investigation of the charges against him, and on motion placed on file.

After a number of bills had been audited, Dr. Hagan stated that he had transferred his office to his successor, Dr. Reese. Mr. Hanley then proposed than an unanimous vote of thanks be tendered to Dr. M. Hagan for his able, efficient and painstaking services and economical management during his connection with the Board as its health officer, when, but for his energy and medical and sanitary skill, the city would have lost many lives and expended many thousands of dollars. Seconded by Mr. Humphreys and carried unanimously.

The Board both as a body and individually also tendered him their heartfelt wishes for further success in his profession.

Dr. Hagan responded briefly and feelingly, thanking the Board and stating that he had always endeavored to do his duty and would always have a pleasant recollection of his past connection with the city.

The petition of Heiman and others, complaining of the manure lying around Donegan's stable on Montreal street, as a nuisance, was referred to the Health Officer.

A petition from Mrs. Annie Williams, asking for relief from seepage into her property on Philadelphia street, was also referred to the Health officer.

A proposition of Geo. M. Settleman, to dispose of dead animals of the city, was referred to the Health Officer, with directions to investigate and report on any proposal given him, so as to settle this necessary sanitary measure most economically.

Drs. Hagan and Reese advised that the portable Bucker Hospital be at once taken out and erected on a site near the present pest-house.

A committee of three from the Journeymen Plumbers' Association appeared before the Board and strongly urged the necessity of having a plumbing inspector, as a greater part of the work done under contract was very defective. As illustration, section of pipe and joints, taken out of new houses on Los Angeles street, showing air-holes, loose solder, and iron pipes projecting through and blocking the passage through lead pipes were shown, which were very forcible demonstrations of the point the deputation wished to make clear to the Board. Another advantage of an inspector would be to give first-class plumbers, who now cannot compete with the "tin-horn butchers," employment. The Board decided to ask the Council to hear the committee on Monday next on the subject.

Adjourned.

AMUSEMENTS.

Successful Benefit to Harry Osborne.

As was expected the benefit to Harry Osborne attracted a large audience to the Opera-house last night, and the entertainment provided was undoubtedly satisfactory. Miss Davies rendered the unsophisticated border heroine "Chispa," in a very natural manner, and as "Zeke Stevens," Mr. Grismer had an opportunity to fully display his dramatic powers. The support given by the rest of the company was good, and the stage setting was very realistic. Between the acts Mrs. Mamie Short and Madame Jennie Metzler Williams appeared before the audience, the former enthralling all with her elocutionary efforts, while the latter's vocalization called for a rapturous encore.

At the matinee to-day the company will present Wallack's spectacular comedy, "Rosedale," and the engagement will close to-night with a production of Dion Boucicault's exciting drama, "The Streets of New York."

Illinois Social.

If possible, a larger audience than ever before greeted the Illinois Society, at Good Templars Hall, last night. Every inch of standing room was occupied, and many persons coming late were obliged to return without being able to get even standing room.

The programme was in keeping with the established reputation of the society, and consisted of: piano solo, "22d Regiment March" by Mrs. Luther; recitation, "The Man who had his Hair Cut," by Mrs. Walter Thompson; zither solo, by Miss Fannie Rech; recitation, "Kate Shelby," by Miss Hattie Pearson; recitation, "How Reuben Played the Piano," E. P. Thompkins. A collection which amounted to $10.81 was taken at this stage of the entertainment, after which a fifteen minute recess was announced. A very pleasant interim resulted, after which the following additional programme was rendered: song by Mrs. Sanderson, "The ships went Sailing by"; recitation, "The Boy stood on the Burning Deck," by J. D. Kellogg; recitation, "Tom," little Lillie Sargent; speech in original Sanscrit, by F. L. Grosvenor; piano duett, Misses Osborne; recitation, Miss Hattie Pierson; zither solo, Miss Fannie Rech; piano solo, Miss Holms.

Caledonian Entertainment.

The entertainment given by the Caledonian Club, at Armory Hall last night, was quite a success, there being hardly seating room for all who obtained admittance. During the entrance of the audience Messrs. McDonald and Thomson amused the audience by playing several selections of Scotch music on their bagpipes and Master Robbie Burns danced the "Highland Fling" very gracefully. Mr. Sam Booth's solo, "The Laird of Cockpen," was much appreciated, as was the duet, "Oh! Wert thou in the cauld blast," by Mrs. Starkweather and Mr. Wm. Stephens. Miss Anna Pendleton sang "Waddles Fluddie" very effectively, as did Miss Ida Collins "Mary of Argyle." Mr. A. M. Hawthorne sang "Oh Thou Art the Lad O' My Heart, Willie," and Robbie Burns danced the Sword dance and "Shean Trews" very artistically. Upon the conclusion of the programme the chairs were removed and a large proportion of those present joined in the merry dance.

Banker's Daughter.

The Wilber Company produced the above play to a good house at the Pavilion last night. The piece went well with the audience. This afternoon they will give a matinee at which time they will present Edith's Burglar and Ten Nights in the Barroom. To-night the play will be Stricken Blind.

POLICE NEWS.

Changes Made in the Force by the Commissioners.

Ex-Detective Brady and Ed. Boyle, who hails from the same place as Brady, namely Tucson, yesterday indulged in a fight near the postoffice, on Main street. A complaint was sworn out against Brady, and he was taken before Justice Taney and fined $6.

Frank and Andrew Toal, who were arrested by Police Clerk Moffit on Temple street on Tuesday evening, were yesterday before Justice Austin on a charge of disturbing the peace. Andrew Toal pleaded not guilty and asked for a trial by jury, which was granted and set for March 22nd at 11 A. M., with bail fixed in the sum of $100. Frank Toal, who has served a term in San Quentin, pleaded guilty, and was committed without bail till to-day, when he will be sentenced.

Charles Dunn was found guilty of an assault with intent to murder in Judge Gardiner's court yesterday.

The case of F. W. McArthur, A. M. McKinley and J. H. Martin, the three swindlers charged with an attempt to obtain money by false pretences, was again taken up in Justice Austin's Court yesterday, and occupied most of the day. After a lengthy summing up of the evidence, by counsel for both sides, the case was given to the jurors, who were absent about two hours, when they returned and rendered a verdict of not guilty as regards A. M. McKinley and J. H. Martin, but could not agree regarding F. W. McArthur, and were consequently discharged. The case will be re-set to-day.

The trial of Thomas Ballantyne, for battery, was set for Monday, February 20th, at 3 P. M., with bail fixed in the sum of $20.

The examination of D. Suhl and B. Solomon, the fence keeper, for receiving stolen property, was set for February 20th at 10 A. M., and they were committed in default of $2000 bail.

Two or three changes took place yesterday on the police force. Sergeant T. Donahue was appointed on the detective force at a salary of $100 per month, and Officer Bowler was appointed Sergeant in his stead. W. B. Palmore, who has been employed in Justice Austin's Court in conveying prisoners to and from the county jail and the city prison, and in issuing subpœnas, was given a beat, and Officer Bean placed in his position.

Freeholders.

The Board of Freeholders met yesterday morning and held a short session. Present, Mayor Workman and Messrs. Robinson Lee, Toberman, Smith, Lindley, Vickery, Sinsabaugh and Mesmer.

Mr. Robinson read a communication from M. R. Vernon, calling the attention of the Board of Freeholders to the necessity of making provisions in the new Charter that will enable the city to lease for a term of years portions of its real estate, for business purposes. On motion of Dr. Sinsabaugh, the matter was referred to the Revisory Committee.

Mr. Robinson moved that Sections 21 and 22, giving the Council power to authorize private parties to improve streets and build sewers, and Section 5 in the report of Committee No. 6, be stricken out. Motion carried.

Mr. Toberman moved that the report of the committee, as amended, be referred to the Revisory Committee. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, to have the members of the Board of Education elected by wards alternately, was referred to the Revisory Committee.

Mr. Lee moved that Dr. Lindley be requested to hand his report on the Board of Health to the Secretary, that the report of Committee No. 3 be printed and both referred to the Revisory Committee, also that the report of Committee be redrawn. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Lee the Board adjourned subject to the call of the chair, and all reports and communications received during the adjournment will be referred to the Revisory Committee.

RAILWAY NEWS.

Gossip of the Tracks at Many Points.

A RAILROAD MAN'S VIEWS.

Collision on the S. P. R. R.—Many Magnates Congregating at San Diego—Notes.

While talking to a Southern Pacific official the other day, the HERALD's representative asked him what he thought that company would do in the way of extensions during the next few months.

"What they will do, I cannot say; it is one of those things they keep to themselves, until they are ready to commence work, and then they don't say much, but just go ahead without stopping to ask anyone's consent. I feel quite sure they will build into San Diego as soon as possible, though the exact date I could not give you."

"Are they going to do anything else?"

"I don't know, as I told you. I have heard some talk of extending the line, as soon as built into San Diego, from that that place down through Lower California, and I should not be at all surprised if they eventually did so; such a line would pay immensely."

A PROMOTION.

Mr. S. B. Hynes, of the Santa Fe, Has his Duties Increased.

The following circular was received at the Santa Fé's general office in this city yesterday:

A. T. & S. F. R.R. Co., and the Chicago, Kansas and Western R.R. Co.,
OFFICE OF TRAFFIC MANAGER,
TOPEKA, Kan., February 11, 1888.

Mr. S. B. Hynes, general freight and passenger agent of the Sou. Kan. Ry. Co., has this day been promoted to the position of general freight agent of these lines, with headquarters at Topeka, Kan.

All communications and reports heretofore addressed to Mr. Hynes should, in the future, be addressed to Mr. C. W. Cook, assistant general freight and passenger agent, Sou. Kan. Ry. Co., at Lawrence, Kan.

W. F. WHITE, Traffic Manager.

Approved: J. F. Goddard, general manager.

Mr. Hynes is an old railroader, having commenced work, June 15, 1874. He was born in Hanover, Ind., June 13, 1842. From the time he entered the railway service till December 1, 1876, he was general southern agent of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Company, and had charge of the passenger and land department at St. Louis, Mo. From December, 1876, to December 1, 1880, he acted as general agent for the same company at the same place, when he was transferred to Chicago, and served in the same capacity until June 1, 1882. From that date until September 1, 1883, he served the Kansas City, Lawrence and Southern Kansas road as general freight and passenger agent. Since september, 1883, he has held the position from which he has just been promoted.

RAILROAD MAGNATES.

Many of the Biggest Ones Congregating at San Diego.

Four special cars, carrying several railroad magnates, passed San Bernardino Thursday evening for San Diego. One belonged to the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad, another to the Santa Fe Company, and another to the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe. The ownership of the fourth car could not be learned in this city. A special car belonging to Mr. Marquand, a director of the Missouri Pacific Company, arrived in this city yesterday morning before daylight, and Mr. Smith, of the Santa Fe, and other Santa Fe officials who are in his party, are expected to arrive to day from San Diego, where they have been for a few days. Railroad men in this city are considerably excited by this general gathering of railroad magnates at San Diego, and wonder what it all means. No one in this city can give the slightest inkling of the matter.

A COLLISION

Between Two Special Freight Trains at Lordsburg.

Reports, have just reached this city, of an accident that occurred to two Southern Pacific Company's trains a few hundred feet north of Lordsburg, N. M. A special eastbound freight train collided with the station engine, which was drawing a train of cars, just at the switch where the narrow gauge road connects with the main line. The station engine and four cars were badly damaged, while the engine attached to the special was thrown clear off the rails, fracturing the right leg of Fireman Smith, who had not time to jump. Both engines were badly wrecked, though not much damage was done to the tracks, which is usual under the circumstances. The trains were both running slowly, or else the damage would have been greater.

Late Trains.

Very heavy rainfalls on the Southern Pacific Railroad between this city and San Francisco on Thursday, caused the officials of this division to stop all trains running at nightfall, for fear of landslides, washouts, etc. No trains were run north of Mojave, and none south of Summer. For this reason trains No. 17 and 19; due here respectively at 8:45 A. M. and 5 P. M. yesterday were delayed in arriving. No. 17 was late nine hours and twenty minutes, and No. 19 about one hour and a half. Both trains got here within a few moments of each other last evening. The precaution was well taken, as several small landslides occurred during the night.

Off the Track

Thursday night at 7 o'clock engine No. 62 and several cars were derailed six miles north of Mojave. The accident was due to a soft place in the track caused by the heavy rain, which prevented the laborers from replacing the engine and cars upon the rails. Accordingly a track was built around the rails, and all trains passed without delay.

Small Landslides.

Several small landslides occurred night before last on the line of the Southern Pacific Co., between this city and Sumner. One occurred near tunnel No. 12, one near tunnel No. 16, and one near tunnel No. 17. All were repaired by daylight yesterday morning.

Notes and Personals.

Yesterday morning's San Diego train arrived on time.

No. 20, due from El Paso at 9:30 o'clock, was reported on time.

Thursday night's Santa Fe overland arrived yesterday morning at 6 A. M.

Mr. J. G. Graham, Assistant Engineer of the Southern Pacific Co., accompanied by his wife, are in the city.

Mr. Horace Bingham, the gentlemanly ticket agent of the Southern Pacific Co., accompanied by his wife, are in the city.

Two handsome coaches arrived yesterday from New Jersey, via the Southern Pacific company, for the Glendale Railway company.

Mr. W. F. Perkins, Mr. Williamson Dunn's most accomplished stenographer, was taken suddenly ill yesterday and had to go to his room at once.

Mr. F. F. Lloyd, Assistant Division Roadmaster of this division of the Southern Pacific Co., returned Thursday night from El Paso. He looks remarkably well and is as agreeable as ever.

MINING.

Interesting Letter About the Calico and Other Mines.

EDITORS HERALD—The newspapers published in this county are so thoroughly wrapped up in the real estate boom that they have lost sight of the mining enterprises carried on within their borders. A capitalist stranger might live in the city of San Bernardino until he was gray-headed, and did he read the local journals published there ever so carefully, he would not imagine that mining and milling, to any extent, was carried on in such vast proportions, as is the case at Calico and Daggett, only distant a few hours' run by rail. Since the demise of the Calico Print the mining community of the desert have had no representation, as there is no paper published north of the San Bernardino range of mountains; so I will, if you will indulge me, give the readers of the HERALD a few items which may prove interesting to them.

ARISEN FROM HER ASHES.

Calico, since its destruction by fire last autumn, has been substantially rebuilt and business of all kinds resumed. The mines are in the main paying well and a large number of miners are at work for the various companies. The chloriders, of which there are many, are doing well, many of them making money fast, and almost all making good wages. The Run Over and the Barber mill at Calico, the Odessa mill at Hawleys, and the Oro Grande mill at Daggett, now that the coal blockade has been raised, are kept running on high grade ore, making altogether sixty stamps, constantly crushing rock. The Oro Grande's sixty-stamp mill (which was also destroyed by fire last fall when almost completed) will be in running condition in about two months. A narrow gauge railroad will commence to be built next week to connect the new mill with the Waterloo, King, and the other mines owned by the company, all of which mines are showing larger bodies of ore than ever before. In fact, the Waterloo mine itself is capable, with a small force of miners, to keep the whole of the seventy-five stamps, that the company will own, when the new mill is completed, in constant operation for an indefinite period. The Run Over Mill is at work with its fifteen stamps on Garfield ore, whilst the Barber and Odessa mills do custom work for the Chloriders or other mines, besides their own, which do not own any mills.

LAVA BEDS AND OTHER DISTRICTS.

The mining districts of Lava Beds, Soda Lake, Ord and Five points, all of which are tributary to this place, are showing remarkable bodies of high grade ores, that are beginning to attract the attention of mining capitalists, all going to show that ere another year shall have rolled along Daggett will continue to be in the future, as in the past, the leading shipping point on the coast for silver bullion.

RAILROADS AND RAILROAD ROUTES.

I see in reading accounts of the proposed railroads to be built between Los Angeles and Utah that Barstow is always mentioned as an intersecting point of the roads, and I would like to call the attention of those having charge of the surveying parties to the fact that by making this place, or some place nearer here, the meeting point, a route about thirty miles shorter can be obtained, and the road would run through a much better mining country—not only running over easier grades, but the road would be much closer to the gold and silver mines of the above named districts, as well as much nearer to the immense bodies of iron ore which have lately been purchased by the company who propose putting up works at Chino, in Los Angeles county.

INVITATION TO A MINER'S BANQUET.

Now, you can tell your readers that when they get tired of snuffing the fragrant perfume of hyacinthe and orange blossoms, to come out on the ragi g Mojave, take a trip up into the adjacent silver-ribbed hills, sit down and swap lies over a delicious plate of pork and beans with some old miner, then return and tell the tenderfeet that there are riches within easy grasp, other than those made by orange and grape culture, where capital is just as safe and remunerative, just as sure, and oftentimes more rapid. For the day is not far distant when mining will take its place, as it should long since have done, amongst the legitimate business enterprises, and ceased to be looked upon as merely a game of chance.

J. A. P.

Daggett, February 16th, 1888.

Water is king in California. Strangers should beware of deception about this indispensable article. Citrus fruits can't be raised without it. Many sellers promise water, but few can show it. The Porter Land and Water Company, First and Spring streets, invite inspection of their lands and water at San Fernando.

GRAND AUCTION SALE!

SHAFER & TOWN'S PROPERTY,

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 18th,

AT 1 P. M.

96---BEAUTIFUL LOTS---96

Know all men by these presents, that Messrs. Shafer & Town pledge themselves that their auctioneers will sell to the highest bidder each lot put up. The lots are faultless in location: the name of the tract shows this.

The soil is excellent and they are all that lots should be. Their size is desirable and the means of transit to the tract insures its popularity.

The tract can be reached from the street cars corner Jefferson and Main, which street car line is about to be extended immediately past the tract.

The public is especially informed that there will be no cappers allowed at the sale and every lot offered will be knocked down to the highest bidder.

Shafer & Town bought the tract some time ago very cheap and can therefore sell cheap with no loss.

TERMS—⅓ cash, ⅓ nine months, ⅓ eighteen months.

Santa Ynez Valley Lands

FOR SALE IN LOTS TO SUIT, FROM 10 ACRES UPWARDS.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY CALL THE ATTENTION of intending purchasers to the lands of the Santa Ynez Land and Improvement Company, which is without doubt the best investment in California. These lands can be bought in any quantities desired and are as good for the cultivation of Olives, Prunes, Oranges, Walnuts, Almonds, Grapes, or in fact any fruits or vegetables that are grown in Southern California as any lands in Los Angeles county, and can be bought on reasonable terms and at a very small part of the price that would be asked for the same lands here, so that it offers one of the best opportunities to parties selling out here to reinvest. To Eastern purchasers this is one of the best opportunities to invest in lands that are bound to be worth double the price that are now asked for these within a very few months, as both the Southern Pacific and A., T. & S. F. Railroads have surveyed through the entire tract, which will double the value of these lands as soon as completed past this tract.

Descriptive Catalogue, Maps, Price and Terms furnished on appplication. Every facility will be given purchasers who would like to visit the tract before purchasing. Vehicles will be on hand to take customers over these lands and everything done to make a visit to this section agreeable.

ONE MILE AND ONE-HALF FROM CENTER OF CITY.

Lots are large, streets are wide, situation delightful. Grand view of city and surrounding country. Pure Spring Water piped to every lot. Drainage is perfect. Only 5 minutes' ride on an ELEVATED RAPID TRANSIT RAILWAY to this most natural place of all for happy homes.

This very choice piece of property has been in the market only a very brief length of time, but lots are selling rapidly, and buildings are being erected by the purchasers. Nearly $50,000 worth of lots have been sold. Bankers and owners of brick blocks have invested money in these lots for profit.

This property is positively FIRST-CLASS, "GILT-EDGE," UNEQUALED. Comparing location, convenience, size and quality of lots with the low price and terms of payment we offer, we defy competition and contrast.

PRICES—$200 to $1200 PER LOT. One-fourth cash, balance in 6, 12 and 18 months. Call and investigate.

THE MARBLE STOCK.

Testimony of D. C. White for the Prosecution.

THE TITLE OF THE COMPANY.

The Case Continued Until Monday on Account of Col. Boyce's Illness.

At 12:45 P. M. the trial of the Boyce case was again resumed in Justice Taney's court. Judge Fitzgerald stated to the court, that the delay in the appearance of the defendant was on account of a relapse under which Colonel Boyce was suffering.

Colonel Boyce showed decided symptoms of illness, and it was with a great deal of difficulty that he reached the court-room and took his usual seat. His physician had advised him to remain at home.

Assistant District Attorney Dunlap expressed himself as being quite willing to continue the case owing to the Colonel's illness.

Judge Fitzgerald thanked the attorney, and said they were much obliged and appreciated the kindness of Mr. Dunlap, but as Colonel Boyce was here and his physician stated that he might soon be worse, he proposed to proceed with the case, and if at any time the Colonel became worse the case could then be continued.

D. C. White again took the stand, and testified: The company was out of debt, but their books do not show it, and accounts are often coming into the office. The assets are equal to the liabilities. I am a practical book-keeper, I examined all through the stocks, but did not find number 373, which I was looking for. I got the stock from W. W. Seamans, just after the consummation of the trade. I had not examined the books before. Capt. Seamans told me that the first thousand shares on the stock-book, 309 to 312 inclusive, were held in escrow.

After the sale I asked him about the thousand shares, but I got no satisfactory answer. My attention was called to the $3104 owing to Mr. Duffy by Mr. Bragg after I bought the shares. It was explained by Capt. Seamans and Col. Boyce, who said it was money to carry on the business and would be paid in time.

Cross examined. During the past twelve months, and especially the nine months, I have been engaged in the insurance business. I left Cincinnati to come to California with the Braggs to enter into any kind of business, principally the real estate business. I did not know what kind of real estate business. The Braggs spoke to me of an offer of some stock in the Victor Marble Company, Sunday, January 22d, I think was the first time I was ever spoken to of the Victor Marble Company. I could not tell the hour it was first mentioned. I believe it was some time before 2 P. M. I was at the Bellevue Terrace at the time, where we had a suit of three rooms. I think the conversation took place in Mr. C. C. Bragg's room. He stated that Colonel Boyce thought it was a good investment to go into the Victor Marble Company. The first time I met Colonel Boyce was the day previous, when I went with the two Braggs to Colonel Boyce's house, but I do not know whether it was morning or afternoon. We went there to see if there was any mail for us. That evening I went to the opera with C. C. Bragg, and C. F. Bragg remained with Colonel Boyce. After the opera we went to Koster's bakery and had a lunch and then went home. I went on Monday with the Braggs to see Col. Boyce and met Capt. Seamans, Mr. J. Carter and Col. Boyce. I do not know whether Capt. Seamans was in the house when I got there, but he was there soon after. We all spoke about the Victor Marble Company, but I do not know who spoke first about it. I went there to learn whether it was a good investment or not. I am a business man, and if I thought the investment was good, solely on Col. Boyce's recommendation, we would purchase it. I made inquiry as to the property and completed the transaction of the purchase on the representation of Col. Boyce and Capt. Seamans, as I thought they were reliable men. I never spoke to C. F. Bragg about it, although I was with him in Cincinnati for over a month. I never saw the books before I made the purchase. C. F. Bragg was a director and a large stockholder in the Company since I knew it. He told me it was his idea that it was a good investment if properly managed, but I had little conversation with him. I am positive I had no conversation with Mr. Richards about the Marble Co. I knew he was a director before I made the purchase. There was nothing said relative to the retention of Richards in the company in my presence. After the sale was made I met Mr. Richards and in a conversation he told me considered the company a little shaky. I think it was on Thursday after the sale that the conversation was had. We talked of the report made by Parsons. He said for some time he had considered that there was something a little fishy about the title. Mr. Richards did not say that they held bargain and sale deeds and that the title was perfectly good. Mr. Seamans told us they held a contract with some parties by the name of Suttons by which they would pay a royalty of 25cts. on each barrel of lime taken from the quarries, and this influenced us very much in the trade. The Suttons came into our office and we offered them a contract but they refused. They said they never offered to pay the 25cts. They offered 15cts. per barrel if we would protect them in the title. We offered to pay all the running expenses to start the concern, and we would thereafter pay them $1 per barrel for all they would produce. I don't know whether I am a director, or not, or, in fact, what position I do occupy. The books were turned over to me and I received them, thinking I was an officer of the corporation; but after I found I was elected by illegal stock I did not know whether I was an officer, or not. My attention was called to certificate No 373 on account of the red figures and notes. I called the attention of the Bragg brothers and Mr. Richards to the red notations. We endeavored to trace out the history of the certificate, as we did not understand why it was issued in red ink. We found it was issued to Colonel Boyce as security for $190. It was about the 24th or 25th that we made the examination. I inquired of Captain Seamans the meaning of the red notations. He told me 373, was held as security for money advanced to the company. After the sale I looked for No. 373, but could not find it. The books were kept in the safe, and I had a combination, as did also Captain Seamans. We examined the titles to the company's property and we could not find any satisfactory claim in our favor. I considered the title very poor. I made the examination in company with Mr. Parsons and C. C. Braggs. (A bundle of deeds were here produced and the witness asked if he recognized them as the instruments conveying by bargain and sale deed the property claimed by the Victor Marble Company.) The deeds have been in my possession since the sale to Mr. Braggs. I am familiar with them and the terms of same.

Re-direct-examination: There was not a word said relative to purchasing Richards' stock.

On account of the condition of Colonel Boyce, he suffering severely from a relapse, it was agreed that the case should go over until Monday, at 2 P. M.

THE CRESCENT

ADDITION TO MONROVIA,

The Premier Town of Southern California

This beautiful addition lies along the foothills, right in the path of the great building boom that has distinguished Monrovia above every other town in the South.

The property faces south, and is of sufficient elevation to overlook all of Monrovia, Duarte, Azusa, Glendora, Gladstone, Alosta and Covina on the east, and Sierra Madre, Arcadia, Lamanda Park, Olivewood, Pasadena, the Raymond Hotel, Baldwin's and Rose's magnificent ranches, and in fact almost the entire San Gabriel Valley, acknowledged to be the finest and richest in California.

Right adjacent to this tract are the palatial residences of W. N. Monroe, J. M. Studebaker, J. I. Case, Gen. W. E. Pile, Mr. Little and others.

Water, under high pressure, piped through every street.

As this is the finest and most desirable property ever offered in Monrovia, and is designed for handsome homes, there are no lots less than one-half acre, and most of them are one and two acres each.

Inasmuch as there have been innumerable inquiries about this choice property, it has been decided to offer all of the lots, only about 60 in number, on one day, at PUBLIC AUCTION, with no prices attached, permitting the public to fix their own prices. The owner sells the property without reserve, except one lot, upon which he wishes to build a handsome residence, and for this he will bid same as any other purchaser.

You buy the land with its unrivaled location, and get the sunshine, the health-giving climate and the magnificent views for nothing

BOY CRIMINALS.

Youthful Burglars to be Sentenced To-Day.

Masters Lansing, Whittier, Miller and Collins, four boys, pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary, in Judge Cheney's Department yesterday, Lansing to burglary in the first degree and the three latter, in the second degree. The boys were all anxious to receive sentence, and waived time for that purpose. The Judge, after talking to them some time, relative to their past career as young criminals, asked if there was anyone in the house who knew them. District Attorney Du Puy, stated that he knew nothing of the boys except what he had learned since their incarceration. He was satisfied they had been the tools of old and accomplished professional burglars and sneak-thieves, and that they could give very valuable information against Los Angeles crooks if they were disposed to. They were young, Miller and Collins being only thirteen and Lansing and Whittier fifteen years old, yet they seemed hardened in crime and took great pride in it. Judge Cheney ordered that they be brought up for sentence at 9:30 A. M. to-day, stating that it was very hard to decide what to do in such cases. Penitentiaries were for the purpose of terrorizing others by example and to reform, but it was a well-known fact that instead of bringing about a reformation, the prisoner generally came forth from the prison doors a graduate in crime.

GOSHEN!

GRAND EXCURSION

—TO AND—

Auction Sale

—AT—

GOSHEN, TULARE COUNTY.

BOVEE, TOY & CO.

WILL SELL AT AUCTION ON

THURSDAY, February 23, 1888,

At 11 o'clock A. M., on the Grounds

500 Business & Residence Lots

IN THE TOWN OF GOSHEN.

This town, now for the first time offered to the public in building lots, is undoubtedly the grandest opportunity which the great San Joaquin Valley with its limitless resources has ever offered the investor.

SITUATION.

Goshen is in the heart of the valley on the main line of the S. P. R. R. just midway between San Francisco and Los Angeles, and it is also the only center of the Cross Railroad systems at present running from Huron on the west to Visalia on the east. This cross line is now being pushed to the great coal-field of Robins and Rawlins on the west, and on the east will tap the inexhaustible lumber belt of the Sierras. It is beside, the center of numerous prospective lines and must undoubtedly become the great traffic depot of the Valley.

Soil and Agricultural Advantages.

Around Goshen are 100,000 acres of the finest agricultural land in the State—quite as rich and productive land as that around Fresno, which has sprung from a hamlet to a city of 10,000 inhabitants in three years. This soil is now bearing all the fruits and products of California in abundance wherever tested.

Goshen is 15 miles from Tulare Lake, and lying as it does between it and the Sierras, the question of water supply can never present any difficulty, as already attested by the abundance of irrigating ditches all around, and the superabundance of surface water and artesian wells.

CLIMATE.

Goshen has undoubtedly the best climate in the San Joaquin Valley—perfectly free from all malarial influences—and while the days are delightfully warm the nights are balmy and cool.

Goshen affords probably the best field in all California for a great fruit-canning and drying industry, and is scarcely second even to Watsonville as a location for an extensive beet-sugar factory, such as is being there erected by Spreckels & Sons.

Grand Excursion will leave Los Angeles on Wednesday, February 22, 1888, for Goshen.

Round-Trip Ticket, $8, good to return within 5 days.

TERMS OF SALE—One-fourth cash; balance in one, two and three years, with interest at 7 per cent. per annum.

An Ordinance

Fixing rates of road poll tax for Los Angeles county, adopted February 13th, 1888, by the following vote: Ayes—Supervisors Rowan, Macy, Venable and Martin. Noes—none.

The Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby levied upon each male person over 21 and under 55 years of age, found in each road district of this county, between the date on which this ordinance shall go into effect as hereinafter provided and on the second Monday in January, 1889, the sum of $2.00 as a road poll tax for the current year.

SEC. 2. Every person in a road district in said county who has not paid the said poll tax mentioned in the preceding section in some other district, may, prior to the 1st day of June, 1888, work out said road poll tax under the direction, supervision and control of the road overseer or road commissioner of said district, at the rate of $1.00 per day. The road overseer or commissioner of such district shall give to each person performing such labor a certificate thereof.

SEC 3. At the expiration of the time hereinbefore provided for the performance of such labor, said road poll tax shall be due in money from every person liable as aforesaid, not holding a certificate that he has performed such labor, and shall be collected by the various road overseers or road commissioners in their respective districts, and in the same manner that State poll taxes are collected.

SEC. 4. This ordinance shall go into effect and operation upon the 1st day of March, 1888, and shall, prior to that date, be published for one week in the Los Angeles Daily HERALD, a newspaper published in said county, together with the names of the members of this Board voting for and against the same.

To-morrow evening, at Opera Hall, ex-Senator W. P. Mabson, Rev. Dr. Petty, of San Francisco, Rev. I. Brown, of Baltimore, will speak on "New South, Negro Christian, Colonization in California, the advantages of negro labor," etc.

The Los Angeles Constructing Company filed articles of incorporation yesterday, with the following directors: H. B. Marshall, Charles E. Tibbetts, James D. Smith, Charles R. Eager, A. D Childress, Geo. M. Halton, H. P. Lantz. The capital stock is $30,000.

The following persons were yesterday licensed to wed: William H. Chersall to Jennie Brown, Marcion Smith to Malinda Johnson, William Knox to Mary Bryan, A. B. Springer to E. S. Field, Charles Meinhardt to Ella Hammel, Oscar F. Hunt to Miss Fannie M. Ruder. Herman Ledel to Auguste Brandes.

Enrique Martinez was yesterday examined before United States Commissioner Vandyke for selling whisky to an Indian maiden in San Bernardino County. Martinez has been practicing the custom of obtaining small quantities of whisky and bartering it with a young class of Indians. In default of $250, he was committed to await trial next Monday.

The Simpson Tabernacle Society, worshipping on Fort and Seventh streets, will omit the morning service to-morrow and unite with the Fort street church, where the Rev. Bishop Fowler and Rev. Foss will preach the sermon. The evening services will be as usual. The pastor, the Rev. E. W. Caswell, will preach at 7:30, P. M. Praise service 7:30 P. M. Sunday-school at 9:45 A. M.

The Los Angeles and Vernon Street Railway Company are running their cars every half hour from Arcadia street along Los Angeles, San Pedro, Third street, and Central avenue to the Ballona Railroad crossing. This is the longest street-car line running out of the city and makes a delightful trip through the orange groves of the beautiful Vernon district.

Next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, a meeting will be held in the parlors of the Montrose House, corner of Forth and Main streets, for the purpose of organizing a musical and literary society to be called the "Empire State Association," composed of the citizens of this city who came from the State of New York. It is expected and desired that an invitation be extended to all those who hail from the Empire State to attend this meeting. All are invited.

The concert given last Tuesday by the Woody Brothers' Male Quartette, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, proved so great a success and was so highly appreciated by those in the audience, that the company has been secured to remain over next week, and will give another concert on Wednesday evening, February 22d, at the First Congregational Church, assisted by Miss Maggie Woody, contralto soloist. There will be an entire change of programme, with the exception of a few selections, which will be reproduced by request. The quartette will undoubtedly draw a full house.

Personal Mention.

Captain C. M. Delany is registered at the Nadeau.

Mr. J. E. Bush, wife and daughter, and Miss Mary Wagner, who have been visiting at Dr Bush's, a brother, left for their home, Sidney, California, yesterday morning. Mr. Bush contemplates returning to this city to make it his home permanently.

We had a pleasant visit last night from Mr. M. T. Owens, of Waterloo, Iowa, who has come to Los Angeles to stay. Mr. Owens is a brother in-law of our fellow citizen, Mr. Harvey Lindley, and will doubtless enter upon the practice of his profession, the law.

A FURNITURE SALE

Which Was Not as Great a Bargain as Appeared.

A few days ago Mrs. Casey, who resides at No. 59 Sainsevain street purchased the furniture of a house, at No. 360 South Spring street, from an old man named Joseph skipsey, under the impression that she had a long lease of the house. Mrs. Casey, when she went to pay the money, $331.25, told Mr. Skipsey that she would like to see the landlord, Mr. Jones, but Skipsey told her it was not necessary, and that all was right Last Monday Mrs. Casey put a lady into the house to look after it for her, and when she went down with her to the house met Mr. Jones, who, after a short conversation, in which she told him she had purchased the furniture, he asked her if Mr. Skipsey had not told her that he (Jones) had notified him to give up his lease on the 23rd inst Mrs. Casey was dumbfounded, and told Mr. Jones the circumstances, whereupon he told her that Skipsey had once tried to play the same dodge on an old friend of his but as he had come to see Jones before concluding the bargain, matters were squared up satisfactorily, and he advised Mrs. Casey to procure a warrant for Skipsey's arrest. Constable Ed. Smith and his deputies have been working on the case, and after gleaning facts which showed that Skipsey had gone to Santa Barbara, Deputy Constable Roberts located him there yesterday, and he was arrested. To-day Roberts will go to Santa Barbara for the man and bring him back to this city.

ESCAPED.

W. H. Clark Chisels His Way Out of Prison.

It will be remembered by readers of the HERALD that W. H. Clark, who was connected with the burglary of a gun store on the corner of Fourth and Main streets, was arrested last Wednesday evening by Detective McKenzie. On Thursday night Clark stated that he was sick, and he was consequently placed in a new cell that has been fitted up as a hospital. About 2 o'clock yesterday morning, the officer in charge visited him and gave him his medicine At this time everything was apparently all right. However, when morning dawned, and the officer entered the cell, Clark was nowhere to be seen. An investigation showed that he had by some means become possessed of a chisel, file and a couple of saws, and by these means bored a hole through the wall and escaped. There were several drunks in the cells last night who kept up a constant noise, and Clark had evidently taken advantage of this circumstance to make good his escape. He has a cut on his person, from which there is a continual discharge, and as he is at present in a weak state, it is thought probable that it will not be long before he is again caught.

CANDIDATES

For Councilman on the Republican and Prohibition Tickets.

The Republicans of the Second Ward met met in caucus last night to select a candidate for councilman from the Second Ward. The meeting was called to order by Mr. E. J. Niles, who was afterwards elected chairman. The following names were then placed before the caucus as candidates for nomination: F. A. West, J. W. Morgan and J. W. Booth. After considerable discussion as to whether Mr. Morgan would accept the nomination if given him, Coroner J. M. Meredith moved that F. A. West be declared the nominee by acclamation. Carried unanimously; and the chair declared that F. A. West was the regular nominee for councilman from the Second Ward.

Yesterday afternoon the Prohibitionists of the Second Ward met to select a candidate for councilman, R. R. Haines in the chair, and a large number present. Upon the first ballot, J. W. Booth was chosen and declared the nominee of the caucus.

A Narrow Escape.

Last evening the United States Hotel 'bus was wrecked at the Southern Pacific crossing and the passengers had a narrow escape from death. The team was driven by a boy, who did not seem to understand his business. He attempted to cross the track while several engines were shifting about, and when he was partly across one track he discovered an engine coming just ahead of him, and pulling the horses around wrenched off one wheel, breaking the hind axle. The 'bus was filled with passengers, who barely got off from the track ahead of the train. They were all pretty badly scared.

Dance at the St. Nicholas.

The drawing-room of the St. Nicholas Hotel last night was the scene of a very pleasant social dance, in which about twenty couples took part. The commodious chamber was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the music provided was fully equal with the surroundings. The first dance was called soon after 8 o'clock, and from that time until the hour of departure there was no cessation to the festivities Among the many guests present were Miss Louie Hibben of Indianapolis, Miss Hattie Wilkinson of Macon, Mo., Mrs. Taft of Denver, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn of Indiana, the Misses Seamans and Wagoner, and Messrs. Elliott, Taft, Manzy, Ringel, Clark, Avery and Doane.

The Election.

The polls in the Second Ward will open this morning at 6 o'clock and will close at 7 o'clock in the evening. The voters of the Second ward, who desire to cast ballots for a Councilman to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of T. J. Cuddy, can do so either at the Court House or at Lackenshim's Mill, near Alameda on Commercial street. The Democratic nominee is John Moriarty, Judge Ling having withdrawn, there is no opposition except the Republican ticket, which, from indications, has very little chance of winning.

CATARRH!

Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption.

Together with Diseases of the Eye, Ear and Heart, and all Chronic Diseases of the Blood, etc., Successfully Treated by HOLLENBECK BLOCK, Corner Second and Spring Sts., Los Angeles, Cal.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved medicated inhalations, combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood, etc.

CATARRH.

The term Catarrh is applied to a peculiar disorder of the nostrils and adjacent parts which prevails to an alarming extent, and is productive of very serious consequences.

The most prominent and characteristic feature is a morbid discharge from the head, varying in its nature at different times.

In some there is an almost constant flow of clear, acrid fluid, but oftener an offensive, purulent or muco-purulent, greenish yellow matter is secreted, which accumulates in the nostrils or drops into the throat, necessitating its frequent removal by blowing the nose or expectoration, and often by both processes. Sometimes patients feel as though their whole head was in a state of rottenness, so great is the amount of matter discharged and so fœtid is its odor. The patient is greatly annoyed by the constant dropping into the throat of the morbid matter from the head, and as a recumbent position naturally favors the flow downward, his rest is frequently disturbed from this cause. Many sufferers are obliged to lie with the head very much elevated in order to sleep with some degree of comfort.

In others, a tough, viscid and offensive phlegm collects behind and above the soft palate, in the passage between the throat and head, adhering to the parts with gluish tenacity. Its lodgment embarrasses respiration and creates a sensation of irritation and uneasiness in the affected locality, which gives rise to a constant and almost irresistible desire to relieve the discomfort by drawing the mucus into the throat so as to reject it by the mouth. This practice, popularly known as "hawking," is characteristic of Catarrh, and proves as embarrassing to the one affected, as it is disagreeable to those around him.

Again, the offensive matter hardens and deposits itself on the membrane in the shape of dry, hard concretions, which are discharged by the way of the nostrils or throat in lumps or fragments of a deep green tint. In some cases these incrustations accumulate to such an extent as to form a regular plug in the nose, which obstructs breathing and produces serious discomfort. So firmly do these incrustations adhere to the point of attachment that their removal usually requires the most violent efforts and not unfrequently they have to be torn from the membrane. Occasionally a solid cast of notable size is expelled on which there are generally traces of blood, but in some cases the cast presents a tubular appearance, being of exact shape of the nasal cavity. This condition is indicative of ulceration, which, in time, may destroy the bony structure of the nose and produce a subsequent flattening of that organ.

Cases are occasionally met with in which a thick, viscid, slimy secretion coats the membrane of the nasal cavities and then putrefies, giving rise to a stench which is really overpowering, and sufficiently fetid to poison the atmosphere of a whole room, and there are others in which all secretions of the membrane are suspended, causing an unpleasant feeling of dryness, heat, and feverishness in the head and nose—a condition popularly known as "Dry Catarrh."

The disease speedily extends to the air cavities of the bones of the forehead and face, giving rise to a distressing sensation of heavy weight or compression over the forehead, especially in the region above and between the eyes, and to a feeling of fullness, heat, irritation, soreness or pain in the nostrils near the root of the nose, as well as in the upper part of the throat, above and behind the soft palate. Sometimes there is pain obstinately fixed in some particular part, as in the temples, on the top of the head, at the back of the neck, or behind the orbits, and, occasionally, pain manifests itself in the face of so severe a character that it is frequently mistaken for neuralgia.

The breath is always tainted and at times assumes an exceedingly fetid and sickening odor. In some cases it becomes so revoltingly offensive as to render the sufferer an object of disgust to himself as well as to others.

The nasal membrane is thickened and congested, causing the nose to be stopped up, sometimes on one side, sometimes on the other, and often on both, giving rise to a disagreeable stuffy sensation in the head, and occasionally to violent and prolonged paroxysms of sneezing.

The voice is weak, indistinct and husky, or of a nasal character, displaying a sort of sniffling quality. Oftentimes there is a continuous hoarseness and discordance. There is also a sense of irritation in the throat, and frequent attempts to clear the parts of phlegm, producing the sound "hem" more or less forcibly. In some cases patients complain of an uncomfortable feeling of fullness, or a choky sensation in the throat, and in others of a distressing and almost constant dryness, for the temporary relief of which they have to swallow frequently Others again speak of a constant bad or nauseous taste in the mouth and throat.

The stomach generally suffers more or less and becomes weak and irritable; the appetite is capricious and nearly always bad in the morning. The patient is languid, unable to perform mental or physical labor with the usual facility, is nervous, depressed in spirits, at times, fearful, timid, agitated, and inclined to drowsiness and sleep; the memory weakened and permanent impairment seriously threatened.

The mucous membrane soon becomes morbidly sensitive to unfavorable influences, and, in spite of the utmost care, becomes affected from the slightest causes, so that at last a breath of wind upon the lining of the nose or throat becomes productive of a cold, and gives rise to serious disturbances of the respiratory organs. Thus the patient is subject to frequent and repeated colds, each attack aggravating the disease by giving it a new impulse, and involving a larger extent of surface than its predecessor. In this manner the difficulty spreads from organ to organ, invading the throat, larynx, trachea and bronchial tubes, until, encroaching further and further, it reaches the finer ramifications of the bronchi, when but a slight impulse is required to send it to the lungs. Catarrh may, and often does, affect other organs in the body, especially those containing a mucous membrane, such as the Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys, &c

Thus catarrh becomes the starting point of consumption development, the disease being eventually transmitted to the lungs, both by nervous connection and continuity of surface.

So frequently has this fatal course been noticed that all those who are thoroughly conversant with the subject now look upon catarrh as a premonition and one of the very earliest manifestations of consumption.

Inhalations are applicable in all diseases of the respiratory organs, but must be prepared for each individual case as they severally require.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedy at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success. The very best references from those already cured.

CONSULTATION FREE.—Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for consultation and examination but, if impossible to do so, can write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions Address
